Mrs. Roland Weyrich of O'Neill was her maid-of-honor. She wore a pink suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom and his attendant, Roland Weyrich, wore blue suits. Each wore a white carnation boutonniere.

The bride's mother appeared in a flowered, demure dress. She wore a pink carnation corsage.

Mrs. Leland Spry, of Stanton, a sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book. The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill high school with the class of 1948 and for the past three years has been employed at the Cokle hatchery.

Mr. Gallup graduated from the Oklahoma A & M college in 1951 with a bachelor of science degree in agriculture. He is a member of Farm and Home fraternity. He served 1½ years with the army before entering college.

Only Hissing Locusts Marr Long Trip

An interesting and scenic trip is being recounted by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beckwith, of O'Neill. In 17 days they traveled 4,436 miles through Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Nevada, Utah, and Wyoming. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Beckwith and son, Gary, accompanied them. The trip lasted from May 23 to June 9.

"We tried to cross the Rocky mountain on the Trail Ridge in Colorado," says Mrs. Dean Beckwith, "but it was blocked with snow, so we had to go back to Loveland and around to Berthoud Pass."

In Colorado they crossed the Royal Gorge on the world's highest suspension bridge, visited the Garden of the Gods, and the Mesa Verde national park. They crossed the northwest corner of New Mexico where they noted the strange desert flowers and vegetation.

In Arizona they visited the Grand Canyon where they stopped at many points of interest along the way. The Hoover dam and Lake Mead were found to be worth driving out of the way to see for the first time. While driving thru the Painted desert in Arizona the only tire trouble of the trip occurred (which in reality was not a flat tire).

"As we were driving along, suddenly there was a hiss-like sound as when air leaks out of a tire. When we stopped and investigated, we found that the noise was caused by locusts," one of the ladies jokingly remarked.

After going through Nevada, the two families spent six days in California along the coast. They visited Mrs. Henry Seger at Redondo Beach. While in California they went to Sequoia and King's Canyon national park, and Yosemite national park.

On the return trip the Beckwiths stayed overnight in Reno, Nev. The next day they drove 535 miles to Salt Lake City, Utah. They found the Great Salt Desert to be of special interest. The salt flats extend as far as one can see. "In some places, the mountain seem to float on a sea of salt," says Mrs. Ralph Beckwith.

Coming through Wyoming, many signs of warning to watch for cattle were encountered, but very few cattle were seen.

In concluding her remarks about the trip, Mrs. Beckwith stated: "We had a wonderful trip. America is beautiful and we have hundreds of pictures to prove it."
