Defeats Doug Dale in Title Round; 4th Crown

M. J. ("Max") Golden, manager of the Hotel Golden, late Monday was crowned champion of the 31st annual O'Neill open golf tourney at the Country club. It was the fourth time Golden had captured the tourney honors. He ousted George Lightner, of S. Edward, a veteran participant in the O'Neill meet, during Sunday's first round play, and then in the second round eliminated Bill Fox, Albion banker, who dur-ing qualifying play on Saturday established an all-time course record. In the semifinals, Golden nicked Charles Burmeister, of Wahoo, one-up in 18 holes.

Golden's opponent in the title match was Doug Dale, of Ord, last year's champion of the O'-Neill tourney and a veteran University of Nebraska golf team star. Golden bested Dale, Dale gained the finals in the championship flight by hitting Ted Lindberg, of O'Neill; Jim Papez, of Albion, and J. B. Cassell, of Ainsworth.

There were 81 entries from 13 states — Ohio, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Pennsylvania, Nevada, Florida, Texas, Colorado, Illinois, Wisconsin, California and Nebras-

Swede Hagestrom was the sole entry from the Norfolk Country club.

On Saturday—the hottest day of the season—Fox chalked up 30 strokes in nine holes, cracking the all-time record of 31. On his second round he posted a 36—one over par, making a total of 66 for qualifying play. Dale qualified with a 67.

During the past week's hot spell the O'Neill water supply has been taxed to capacity. Residents Earl, of Atkinson—Sister | See | See

> Mr. Anderson estimated that 18 hours on these days 810,000 gallons were being consumed each

The mayor has suggested that residents help to conserve the water supply by following a plan which many of the large cities have had to adopt, an alternate use of the water for lawns and gardens.

Those who live on the east side of Fourth street are asked to use the water for these purposes on Monday, Wednesday and Friday; those on the west side of Fourth street, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

City officials are asking that this schedule be adhered to until further notice.
