Bible School Draws to Close with Program

EWING—The daily vacation Bible school of the Ewing Methodist church, United Presbyterian church and the Church of Christ drew to a close Friday evening with a program at the Methodist church.

Group singing, led by Rev. W. J. Bomer, opened the program followed by action songs and a flannelgraph by the nursery and kindergarten classes. Project for the two weeks session was "Happy Home" with Mrs. Robert Tams and Miss Lois Ann Bergstrom and their assistants, Marcia Gibson and Beverly Montgomery.

The first and second grades, taught by Mrs. Ralph Shrader and Miss Vaula Welke, gave the Twenty-third Psalm and songs, also the salute to the American flag, the church flag and the Bible.

Mrs. Willie Shrader with the third, fourth and fifth grade girls and Rev. C. C. Chappell presented songs, a quiz and Douglas Shrader gave the Ten Commandments.

Boys of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, led by Reverend Bomer, gave a concert recitation of the Twenty-third Psalm, and the girls of the same grades under the direction of Mrs. Willis Rockey presented a candlelighting service and songs. Mrs. Ernest Norwood gave a flannelgraph talk.

Awards were presented for attendance by Miss Anna Van Zandt and Mrs. Carl Christon. Total enrollment was 86 with an average attendance of 80. Miss Marcia Gibson was pianist for all sessions.

Kermit Jefferies, of the K-B market, gave the youngsters a treat of ice cream bars Friday forenoon.
