Stanton-Stowell Nuptials Read

Miss Eileen Stanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stanton, and Rex Lee Stowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stowell, were united in marriage Wednesday, June 18, at St. Patrick's Catholic church. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white marquisette gown. The fitted bodice was fashioned of chantilly lace and the full skirt swept into a train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held in place by a tiara trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Margaret Judge was maid-of-honor and wore a pastel green gown of illusion net and a matching picture hat. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Donna Rae Stowell, cousin of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and wore a yellow taffeta dress with a fitted bodice and full skirt. She wore a matching hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridegroom and bestman, Francis Rohde, cousin of the bride, wore gray suits with carnation boutonniere. The other attendant, Wade Davis, of Chambers, uncle of the bridegroom, wore a brown suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

The wedding march and recessional were played by Mrs. Joseph George. The soloist, Miss Bernadette Hynes, sang "On This Day," "Ave Maria," and "O Lord I Am Not Worthy." The ushers were Bernard Rohde and Robert Prouty.

The bride's mother wore a gray nylon print dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue silk print and both wore white carnation corsages.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home for 36 guests and Father O'Sullivan. Margaret Sullivan, Mary Jo Hynes and Mrs. Robert Prouty assisted with the serving.

In the afternoon a reception was held at the bride's home from 1:30 to 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Bud Moler and Miss Mary Jo Hynes poured.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and is employed at the J. M. McDonald store. The bridegroom is a graduate of Atkinson high school and has recently been discharged from the air force.

Mr. and Mrs. Stowell's honeymoon destination was not announced. The bride's travel costume was of orchid gandy. She wore white accessories.

On their return they will make their home in O'Neill. Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Rohde, of Spencer; Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, of Spencer; Bernard and Francis Rohde, of Spencer; Mrs. Lou Stowell, of Clarinda, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hever, of San Clearmont, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Ryan and daughter, of Prescott, Ia.; Jerry Townsend, of Bedford, Ia.; Gary Crill, of Corning, Ia.; Mrs. Maude Crosby, of Albion; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crosby and son, of Albion; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Parmelee, of Loretta; Mrs. Agnes Davis, of New Lisbon, Wisc.; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Davis and sons, of Mauston, Wisc.; Lee Crosby, of Coyote, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Wade Davis, of Chambers.

Koenig-Thiele Rites Read at St. John's

ST. JOHN'S—St. John's Catholic church was the scene of a beautiful wedding ceremony on Tuesday, June 17, at 9:30 o'clock when Miss Ann Koenig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Koenig, of Ewing, became the bride of Arnold Thiele, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thiele, of Columbus.

Rev. C. J. Kaup officiated at the double-ring ceremony, which was followed by a nuptial high mass served by Bob and Gene Koenig, brother and cousin of the bride.

Patricia Funk was organist and played the traditional wedding march. During the mass, Jean Funk sang "Ave Maria."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of lace and nylon net. The bodice of lace formed a sweet-heart neckline and long pointed sleeves. The skirt and full flowing train were in panels of lace and net. Her fingertip veil of illusion net, edged in lace, was held in place by a crown of pearls. Carrying a bouquet of pink and white roses the bride carried out the tradition of "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue."

The maid of honor, Bernice Koenig, sister of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of pink net over satin. Bridesmaids were: Helen Thiele, sister of the bridegroom, wore blue; Mrs. Stanley Sojka, sister of the bride, wore blue; Mrs. Bill Helm, of Denver, Colo., sister of the bridegroom, wore yellow. All four gowns were identical and each wore mits and picture hats to match the color of their gown. Each carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridegroom was attired in a light gray suit. Leo Thiele, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman and wore a suit of light brown. James Koenig, brother of the bride, was groomsmen, and wore a light gray suit. Stanley Sojka and Ray Sprunk, of Columbus, were ushers.
