

Northerners Wallop Rebels, 14-5, in Classic

Kennedy Knocked Out in 5th

Customers Ready for TIGHT Struggle But North Too Strong

The Northerners kicked up their heels under the lights in Carney park and scuttled the Southern Rebels in the annual North-Central Nebraska league all-star baseball classic, 14-5.

A large crowd witnessed the game and there were hits aplenty as both teams rolled up 10 apiece.

Each club tasted four-base clouts. Mel Baum of Stuart lambasted one out of the park that delivered three runs to the victors. Ted Tomjack of Chambers registered a homer for the Rebels.

B. Kennedy collected two hits in four trips to lead the batting. It was an interesting ball game until the last half of the fifth when the South blew up. Kennedy was driven from the mound after he loaded the bases by yielding a hit and two walks. Clem Schrad, who had been holding down first base, took over but lacked control.

The customers were eager for a nip-and-tuck evening's entertainment but the North simply had too much prowess.

Rollie Kunz of Stuart got credit for the win. Kennedy was charged with the loss.

68 Holt 4-H'ers to Long Pine Camp

Make Roundtrip in Big Truck

Holt county claimed 68 of the 394 boys and girls at 4-H club camp at Long Pine last week. Mrs. J. W. Walter of Chambers, Miss Marlene Reimer of Ewing, Mrs. Grant Peacock of Emmet, and Bob Martens of Atkinson, were the leaders attending along with the county agents, A. Neil Dawes and Mrs. Helen Kreyborg.

The group was transported in a truck owned and operated by Dan Snyder of Atkinson.

The club coming the greatest distance were three boys from Woodchuck club in Grant county. Their post office is Hyannis. The 17 members of the Spencer Busy Bee club won the prize for having the most members present from any one club. Mrs. Ed Zahn was the leader.

Any homemaker will ask, "How did you feed them?" Miss Dorothy Shetler, home agent from Brown, Rock, and Keya Paha counties, handled that department and reported that the group consumed:

135 dozen eggs, 90 pounds of ham, 100 pounds roast beef, 15 pounds cheese, 75 pounds cookies, 25 pounds macaroni, 50 gallons ice cream, 70 dozen oranges, 50 gallons of milk, plus a good many pounds, gallons and dozens of other foods.

Mrs. Frank Skrdla of Atkinson, bird study club chairman of the Nebraska Federated Garden clubs, spoke to the group on Friday morning. The camp program consisted of nature hikes, handicraft and a full program of recreation—games, folk dances and swimming.

Cpl. Schrad, Sister Are Feted by Family

EWING—The Frank Schrad family had a get-together at the parental home near Ewing on Sunday. Their son, Cpl. Carl Schrad, who is home on a 30-day leave from Korea, and his daughter, Miss Marlice Schrad, of Los Angeles, Calif., were the honored guests.

At noon a picnic dinner was served. Taking pictures, swimming and visiting while away the afternoon hours. Others present besides the parents and honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Schrad and sons of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schrad of Rayville, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Funk and family of Ewing.

Cpl. Schrad left Wednesday to report to Camp Carson in Colorado and Miss Schrad returns to California on July 9.

Sunday, June 29, dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tunender and family were Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hutten and daughter, Joyce, of Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Greig and family of Stuart and Mr. and Mrs. William Farr of Atkinson.

Henry Krause, Wife Honored on Anniversary

EWING—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krause of Elgin were the honored guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Philben, and family on Sunday when they celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. Dinner was served at one o'clock and the afternoon spent informally.

Other guests present were: Gail Krause and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Stonebraker, all from Chambers, and Mrs. Anna Jasper of Elgin.
