

3 Meadow Blazes Require Firemen

Hytrek Haystack Hit by Lightning

STUART—The volunteer fire department answered a call to the Hytrek place three miles northeast of Stuart on Saturday about 6 p.m., when a stack of hay was struck by lightning and the fire was spreading on the meadow.

Two other grass fires nearby were caused by lightning at the same time. One, on a meadow leased by Walter Smith was seen and extinguished by the Smiths without aid. The other on the Jerome and Delbert Baum place was extinguished by the Atkinson fire department.
