FIRST PRESBYTERIAN (O'Neill)

Rev. Samuel Lee, pastor
Sunday-school, 9:45 a.m.; worship, 11 a.m.; spiritual life group, Monday, 8 p.m.; church choir, Saturday, 10 a.m.
A Presbyterian youth caravan is to arrive Saturday and will participate in the work of the church during the coming week. All officers of the church and especially the officers of the Westminster fellowship groups are to meet with these young people Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the church basement. Each one is to bring a few sandwiches.

The caravanners will participate in the service Sunday morning and will be presented to the congregation. There will be a covered dish dinner Sunday noon at the church for all the young people of the church between the ages of 12 and 23. A conference will be held in the afternoon for the different age levels.
Next Monday night will be charter night for the men's council. Walter Ottman, the president of the synod council, will be our speaker. Please make your reservations by Friday night of this week.

On Friday evening, July 25, we will worship in the sacraments.

WJAG to Mark 30th Anniversary

One of the oldest radio stations in the U.S., WJAG, Norfolk, will observe its 30th anniversary Sunday, July 27, with a special day long program. The broadcast day will start at 6:45 a.m. Manager Bob Thomas said the day's celebration highlight will be interviews with station alumni—those who appeared on the programs in the 1920s and 30s.

The station was granted its first federal license July 26, 1922.

A feature of the observance will be public participation programs in the Norfolk city auditorium starting at 1 p.m. with the crowning of "Miss WJAG."

WJAG has started a letter writing contest in connection with the 30th anniversary celebration. The contest is open to all WJAG listeners. There will be eight cash awards for the best letters; $15 first prize, $10 second prize, $5 third prize, and $1 each for the next five letters judged best. These letters will become property of WJAG, and judging will be based on the content alone. Letters are to be written about the recollection of various programs heard on the station since WJAG started broadcasting in 1922. Anything about programs, entertainers, announcers, newscasters, may be a prize winner.

Send letters to "30th Anniversary," WJAG, Norfolk, Nebr.

The entire WJAG "Radio family is invited to the 30th anniversary celebration. The entire day will feature fun and entertainment for all.

The "Voice of the Frontier" is planning a special broadcast for WJAG's celebration day. Time will be a half-hour, from 9:15 to 9:45 a.m.—but, of course, will be a Sunday program. Details of the program will be announced. The "Voice" will highlight O'Neill's history since December, 1949, when The Frontier went on the air with its thrice weekly scheduled broadcasts (Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, 9:45 a.m., 780 k.c.)
