

Shierk Home Scene of Dakotans' Wedding

The Paul Shierk home at O'Neill was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Sunday afternoon, August 10, when Mr. and Mrs. Shierk's niece, Miss Mary Ann Juran, of Winner, S.D., became the bride of Cpl. Harold Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Benson of Minnesota, Minn., at 1:30 o'clock candlelight ceremony.

The marriage vows were exchanged before a fireplace. The mantle was decorated with lighted candles and a crystal bowl filled with red and yellow roses. On each side of the hearth huge baskets of various colored gladioli and a plox were placed. Fresh garden flowers were placed about the home.

Nuptial music was played preceding the ceremony and "Because," the chosen song, was heard at the close. Rev. R. W. Olson, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, O'Neill performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of their immediate relatives.

The bride entered the room on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Shierk, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. She appeared in a white nylon net over satin gown of ballerina length. It was fashioned with a fitted bodice of chantilly lace and sleeves coming to a point over the wrist, and self-covered buttons to the wrists. Her only jewelry was a wristlet. A gift of the nylon net drifted from a charitably lace halo. She wore a white Bible topped with a lavender orchid from which drifted white satin streamers. She wore the traditional of something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue with a penny in her shoe.

The bridesmaid was Miss Ruth Benson of Minnesota, Minn., a sister of the bridegroom. She wore a sky blue ballerina length gown with a matching headdress. Her corsage was of blue carnations.

The bridegroom and his attendant, Harlan Staehlecker of Naper, a nephew of the bride, wore conventional suits with white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Shierk, wore a blue print nylon dress with white accessories and a corsage was of blue carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and rose print bengberg dress with white accessories and a corsage of blue carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room of the Shierk home. A hand-crocheted tablecloth covered the bridal table, which gold edged crystal candleholders were placed with white tapers. A three tier wedding cake decorated in the bride's chosen colors of blue and white, and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom was the centerpiece on the bride's table. It was cut in the traditional fashion and served by the bride. Mrs. Forrest Glasser of Minnesota, Minn., poured. Following the reception the bride opened her many gifts.

Mrs. Benson is a graduate of Burke, (S.D.), high school with the class of 1947 and at the present time she is deputy clerk of court, Tripp county, S.D., a position which she has held for the past year and half.

Corporal Benson has been serving as an army recruiter at Winner, S.D., for the past year.

In the afternoon the couple left on a honeymoon trip to the lakes in Minnesota. For traveling the bride wore a rust print nylon dress with white accessories and her orchid corsage. Upon their return they will reside at Winner where they are employed.

Relatives attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Benson and Ruth and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Glasser of Minnesota, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. John Staehlecker and family of Naper; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Juran of Creighton; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gilbert and children, Russell and Joyce of Burke, S.D.
