

Takes a Bride

On Tuesday morning, August 5, Miss Ann Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Iver Lee of Covine, Calif., formerly of Albion, was united in marriage to Edward A. Hynes of Camp Cooke, Calif.

Reverend Collins of Sacred Heart parish, Covina, performed the double-ring ceremony at a nuptial mass in the presence of close friends and relatives.

The bride was beautifully dressed in a powder blue silk crepe suit with white accessories. She wore a French lace picture-hat. Pearls and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom, were her only adornment. Her corsage was of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Mary Rabb served as matron of honor and wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of white gladiolus and stephanotis. Larry Pribil of O'Neill, now stationed at the marine depot at Earstown, Calif., was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served for the bridal party at Delaye's quaint old French restaurant. A four-course dinner and reception was given at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Pigsley, at 6 o'clock in the evening. The table was decorated with tall tapers and garden flowers of blue and white, the bride's chosen colors. The wedding cake was in all white and shaped as a heart. Tiny blue flowers were laid around the base of the cake.

Mrs. Hynes chose an all silk print dress with white accessories as her going away outfit. Mrs. Hynes is a graduate of Albion high school and has been employed by the World Insurance company of Omaha until going to California.

Mr. Hynes is the son of Mrs. Loreta Hynes of O'Neill. He is a graduate of St. Mary's academy, O'Neill, and is now serving with the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes left on a short honeymoon trip through Southern California. They will make their home at 1924 Emerson ave., Santa Barbara, Calif.

Appoint Auxiliary Chairmen

A regular meeting of Simonson unit 93, of the American Legion auxiliary, was held at the American Legion auditorium on Wednesday evening, August 6, with the president, Mrs. Axel Borg, presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A report from the junior auxiliary on the $53.84 proceeds from their stand at the air show was heard. It was voted to allow members to buy material to make articles for the bazaar. It was also voted for membership dues to remain at $1.50 per year.

A letter on membership quotas was read and the quota for 1953 is 272. The district convention will be held in Bloomfield sometime in September.

The auxiliary again is sponsoring the Crowell-Collier publishing company sale of magazines. Mrs. Borg thanked all members of the organization for the corsage sent to her while at the convention in Lincoln.

The following chairmen have been appointed: Mrs. Clyde McKenzie, jr., music; Mrs. Dean Streeter, poppy; Mrs. Eugene Sanders, child welfare; Mrs. Palmer Skulborstad, rehabilitation; Mrs. Sienken and Mrs. Kenneth Elliston, membership.

The auxiliary will serve a banquet on August 28 for the John Deere dealers. Any volunteers of help will be welcomed. A very interesting report from Mrs. Borg and Mrs. Streeter was given on the convention in Lincoln.

A lunch was served by the following committee at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Elgin Ray, Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. Philip Cohn, Mrs. William Watson, Mrs. Dean Reed, Mabel Shobe, and Marjorie Shobe.

The lunch committee for the next meeting will be Winnie Barger, Mrs. Melvin Ruzicka, Mrs. Max Wanser, Mrs. John Stufbergen, Mrs. John Davidson, Hattyan Liedtke and Mrs. Francis Murphy.
