

Apple Per Day May Not Keep Doc Away But Makes for More Interesting Salads

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

The season of the year is with us when apples for cooking are plentiful and cheap. Try some new apple recipes, "for goodness sake."

An apple a day may not keep the doctor away but it will make for a more interesting salad every now and then — and several apples can make the most delectable of desserts.

MINCE MEAT APPLES
Here's a new twist to that old recipe for baked apples. You'll need eight medium sized baking apples, 1/2 cup mince meat, four teaspoons butter, one cup of sugar and one cup water.

Wash and core the apples. Peel skin about a third of the way down. Place in a deep baking dish. Fill the cavities with one tablespoon of mince meat and 1/2 teaspoon butter. Boil sugar and water together for 5 minutes, pour over apples in baking dish. Bake uncovered in oven for an hour, baste frequently with syrup.

We don't care much for regular commercial mince meat. I always fix it up by adding equal amounts of either apple sauce or ground raw apples. Next time you make mince meat pie try adding a couple of ground raw apples. Next time you make mince meat pie try adding a couple of ground raw apples.

and a 1/2 cup pineapple to each mince meat pie filling. You'll like the results.

APPLE ROLL
One-half cup sugar, 1/2 cup honey, one cup water (you may use a cup sugar in place of the half cup sugar and half cup honey), two cups finally chopped apples. Dough for apple roll—One cup sifted enriched flour, three tablespoons shortening, 1/2 teaspoon salt, two teaspoons baking powder, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1/3 to 1/2 cup milk.

Boil sugar, honey and water together to make a thin syrup. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together. Cut in shortening, add milk to make a fairly soft dough. Roll out on floured board in rectangular shape to about 1/4 inch thickness. Spread apples over dough and roll like a cinnamon roll. Cut into one-inch lengths and place out side up in a greased utility dish or pan, size 6x10. Sprinkle with just a little cinnamon, pour hot syrup over the rolls and bake at once in preheated 450 F. oven for 25 minutes. Serves six.

Dear Mrs. Pease:
It has been a long time since I sent a letter for The Frontier: I thought perhaps these cup cake recipes might be of help in preparing children's school lunches. I am also sending a recipe for one of our favorite desserts.

PEANUT BUTTER CUP CAKES
One-half cup butter, 1/2 cups brown sugar, 1/2 cup peanut butter, one teaspoon vanilla, 2/3 cup milk, two eggs (beaten), 1 1/2 cups cake flour, 1/2 teaspoons salt, two teaspoons baking powder.
Cream butter, add sugar, continue creaming. Add peanut butter and cream well. Add vanilla and eggs, beating well. Add flour sifted with salt and baking powder, alternately with milk. Bake in paper cups in moderate oven for about 30 minutes. Frost with any chocolate frosting.

RAISIN CUP CAKES
One-third cup shortening, one cup sugar, one egg (well beaten), 1/2 cup milk, 1 1/2 cups flour, three teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, one cup seedless raisins.

Cream shortening, add sugar and stir in egg. Add milk and flour sifted with baking powder, beginning and ending with flour. Mix well, add vanilla and raisins which have been washed, dried and floured. Bake in moderate oven of 350 F. for 20 to 25 minutes.

PINEAPPLE MARSHMALLOW WHIP
One-half cup cream, 24 marshmallows, 1/4 cup milk, 1/2 cup drained crushed pineapple, 1/4 cup pineapple juice, 1/2 teaspoon lemon rind, 1/2 cup graham cracker crumbs, 1 1/2 tablespoons sugar, 1 1/2 tablespoons soft butter.

Chill cream until ice cold. Put marshmallows over milk in top part of double boiler and cook over boiling water until marshmallows are melted. Remove from heat, stir in pineapple, juices and lemon rind. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Mix graham cracker crumbs, sugar and butter. Put half of crumb mixture into six dessert dishes, or one eight-inch square pan. Whip cream with cold rotary beater until stiff. Fold into chilled fruit mixture. Put on top of crumbs in dishes or pan. Sprinkle rest of crumbs over fruit mixture. Chill about one hour. Keep chilled until ready to serve.

Stand Collapses at Homecoming

One Hospitalized in Mishap

STUART—The first annual homecoming of the Stuart high school was held Friday, October 10.

The program sponsored by the Pep club was started with a parade on main street at 3 o'clock, featuring the school band and floats made by the high school classes and school clubs.

Following the parade there was open-house at the school.

At 5:30 p. m. an alumni banquet was served to 210 guests at the auditorium.

Sharon Bigelow, president of the Pep club, was toastmistress. The welcome was given by Marge Weichman; response by Norris Coats. Recognition was given to Mrs. Leonard Roberts, nee Ida Kraft, as a graduate of the earliest class represented, which was 1901. Other features were a vocal solo by Ruedeen Kramer; tap dance by Henrietta Coats, Carolyn Cobb, Barbara Flanigan and Jane Henderson; vocal solo by Esther Gans.

After the program the alumni organized with the following officers: Mrs. Coats, president; Dana Bigelow, secretary; Edward Kunz, treasurer, and a board of directors as follows: Mrs. Dana Bigelow, Mrs. Frank Weichman jr., Elmer Allyn, Marion Davis and Robert Raman.

At the half-time Shirley Shald was crowned queen and Robert Tielke king of the homecoming festivities. Shirley, the senior class president, is editor of the school paper, "The Wrangler," a member of the school band and a cheer leader. "Bob," a senior, is a letterman in football and basketball.

A twirling exhibition was also given by members of the band. The football score was 12-0 in favor of Atkinson.

One of the bleachers collapsed at the game and several persons were hurt. One youth was hospitalized.

Except that one end of the stand was cushioned and supported by a Cleary Bros. truck many persons might have been seriously hurt.
