

Soldier's Letter Read at Meeting

'Thanksgiving' Thot from Korea

EWING—The forum group of the United Presbyterian church in Ewing met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Schrader. Twenty-one adults and 14 children were present.

"Thanksgiving" was the topic of discussion, led by Mrs. Duane Jensen. Verle Gunter read a letter from a soldier in Korea. The thought expressed was of the many Thanksgivings with all the many things to be thankful for which the soldier had enjoyed in America without much thought placed on the value of each.

He urged the people at home to appreciate the many blessings of this great land of ours and to be very thankful.

The meeting closed with a hymn and prayer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Schrader assisted by Mrs. Lynn Fry and Mrs. Lee Pink.

Reading and Lighting and 'Rithmetic

Look what some figure-happy statistician just found out. From kindergarten through high school, school kids have to plow through a pile of books 18 feet high. A photograph taken of this pile of books would make your eyes ache.

Close visual work is hard on the eyes. A New York State survey of 83,000 students showed only one in 20 kids had vision defects at kindergarten age. By senior high, eye troubles affected six students in 20.

Good lighting is one readily available means of making seeing easier for these students. Lighting engineers find that over half the schools still use old, globe-type fixtures that give only one-sixth the light that ought to be on the desks.

In those schools that have installed modern lighting, teachers report that students are more eager to study, are happier and require less discipline. The teachers find their jobs easier.

To help schools analyze what light is needed, General Electric engineers work out various lighting systems in model classrooms where effects can be demonstrated and compared. A booklet is offered, "Making Schoolwork Easier on the Eyes," in which current practices are summed up. (Write the Lamp Division, Nela Park, Cleveland, Ohio.)

It is the aim of General Electric to translate its engineering help into public service at the community level.

It is a fine thing to see the many people that attend the services of the Methodist church each Sunday. They are taking advantage of one of their wonderful freedoms in this country: The freedom of worship. This is a freedom that we must use to enjoy. Are you? Remember, freedom of worship is not the same as freedom from worship!

METHODIST (Emmett)
Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor
Did you know that the attendance at our Methodist church is growing? People attend the Emmet Methodist church each Sunday and find their neighbors in the spirit of fellowship with God and man. Come next Sunday and meet your friends!

Coming dates to be remembered: November 19—First meeting of through the Bible in 26 weeks. Bring your super, bring your family, bring your notebooks and pencils—we're going to study the Bible! The time: 6:30 p.m.

The next afternoon, November 20, the Women's Society of Christian Service meets at 2 o'clock. The place will be announced at church on Sunday.

Even the democrats enjoyed part of election day. Emmet! They ate at the Methodist church dinner and forgot their worries for an hour. It was fine, that roast chicken and the trimmings!

When tempted some to turn aside As at some by-path I have stood, This thought has helped me to decide: Not what I would, but what I should.

In daily life comes many a test To those who purpose to be good: To such this motto I suggest: Not what I would, but what I should.
