

48 Candidates in Baker's Cage Camp

A total of 48 boys have turned out for practice in Coach Paul Baker's O'Neill high basketball team. The squad will be cut to approximately 25 before the first game.

This year for the first time the O'Neill schedule includes only class B and C schools. All class D schools have been dropped from the list. This is believed to be the toughest schedule ever attempted by an OHS cage crew.

Last year's Eagles won 17 games and lost five. Lettermen returning are Gary Buckmaster, long center; Dave Eby, a nimble ballhandler who'll play forward; George Kilcoin, forward; Bob Carroll, guard, and Jack Hollenbeck, guard.

Promising material includes Harry Chase who transferred to O'Neill high from Atkinson where he was leading scorer last year, Russell Miner, Warren Seeger, Don Davidson, Harold Dexter and Duane Booth.

O'Neill is a member of the Holt county conference which also includes Ewing, Inman, Page, Atkinson, Stuart, St. Joseph's of Atkinson, St. Mary's of O'Neill and Chambers. O'Neill is the defending champion.

This year for the first time O'Neill is also a member of the North-Central Nebraska conference which includes Valentine, Ainsworth, Springview, Wood Lake, Long Pine, Bassett, Stuart and Atkinson.

Ainsworth is the defending champion in this loop.

- Schedule:
- Dec. 5 — At St. Mary's of O'Neill.
  - Dec. 9 — At Ainsworth.
  - Dec. 11 — Gothenburg.
  - Dec. 16 — At Creighton.
  - Dec. 18 — At Atkinson.
  - Jan. 6 — Neligh.
  - Jan. 9 — Spencer.
  - Jan. 13 — Ainsworth.
  - Jan. 20-23 — Holt county tournament at O'Neill.
  - Jan. 27 — At Bassett.
  - Feb. 3-6 — North-Central Nebraska conference tournament at Bassett.
  - Feb. 13 — Valentine.
  - Feb. 17 — At Plainville.
  - Feb. 20 — Bassett.
  - Feb. 23 — Burwell.
  - Feb. 24 — At Albion.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davy visited at the Francis Shunk home Friday evening, November 7.

GAME—OF SORT
was played unday afternoon Coney park. The Earley Oilers, headed by Jim Earley, and the Appley Athletics, led by Big Fred Appley, did battle in an informal, free-and-easy touch football game. There was no tackling, as such, and neither team had a quorum. Final score: Earley Oilers, 14; Appley Athletics, 13. Players were recruited from those performers who several years ago played their last game of real football. Game statistics showed two skinned shins, one bloody nose, one bruised posterior, and six headaches.

Mythical Honors to 5 from Bassett

The North-Central Nebraska Athletic conference coaches have placed seven O'Neill players on the mythical all-loop offensive and defensive grid teams for the just-ended season.

Bassett landed five berths, Ainsworth 4, Valentine 3, Springview 2 and Wood Lake 1. Two teams, Stuart and Atkinson, failed to place among the 22 honor berths (11 offensive, 11 defensive).

OFFENSE
Ends — Bussinger of Bassett and Wraga of Valentine.
Tackles — HULL of O'NEILL and Herron of Wood Lake.

DEFENSE
Ends — Abraham of Ainsworth and SEGER of O'NEILL.
Tackles — E. DAVIS of O'Neill and Carr of Springview.

BACKS — Mitchell of Bassett and Phillips of Ainsworth.
LINEBACKERS — Tinkham of Ainsworth and Harran of Bassett.
QUARTERBACKS — Young of Bassett, Williams of Springview, Osborn of Ainsworth.

Young Adult Fellowship in Session

The Young Adult Fellowship of the Methodist church met on Tuesday evening, November 18, in the church parlors. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Burl Munsell. The devotions were given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kurtz.

Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Watson and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Waller. They presented the following program: Girls' trio selections — Frances Reimer, Esther Kaiser, Evelyn Asher; boys' quartet selections — Jay B. Munsell, Duane Booth, Warren Seger, Edward Price, with James Estian, accompanist; woodwind quartet selections — Paul Shelhamer, Esther Kaiser, Marilyn Lindberg and Charles Houser; playlet, "Suffering Sarah," presented by Wesleyan guild members: Mrs. Esther Harris, Mrs. Harold Seeger, Mrs. William McIntosh, Mrs. Robert Kurtz, Mrs. Clay Johnson, jr.

The program closed with the showing of two films, "Laying of the First Telephone Line from Key West to Cuba" and "The Story Without an End." The films were furnished by Harry Petersen of the Bell Telephone company and shown by R. E. Evans.

Refreshments were served to 35. The next meeting will be December 2 with the Bennett Gillespies and the Neil Dawes in charge.

Holt Farmers Win S.C. Soil Honors

Robert Hill, Holt county soil conservationist, accompanied Vincent Thiele, Louis Bartos and Richard Trowbridge of Page to Sioux City Tuesday where they attended the annual four-state soil conservation meeting and banquet which was held at the Mayfair hotel.

Bartos, Thiele and Trowbridge were chosen from Holt county for having the most progressive farms. Farmers were chosen from each county in the four states of Nebraska, South Dakota, Minnesota and Iowa, making a total of 500.

One farmer was picked from each state for the top award. A Knox county man received it for Nebraska. A certificate of award for better farming was given to the others.

The afternoon meeting was a discussion on soil improvement.

Corn Bread Stuffing—Traditional As Thanksgiving!

Try Corn Bread Stuffing this year in the roast chicken or Thanksgiving turkey and you'll be serving your family food that's truly traditional. Cooking with corn meal is one of America's oldest customs.

At Thanksgiving time, more than any other season of the year, we are mindful of our country's early settlers. Their struggles were legion, with survival depending in large measure on their food supply. While the men went in search of bird, game and fish, the early homemaker concerned herself with the precious corn friendly Indians had taught them to live by.

Today, it is an easy matter to select a fine turkey or roasting chicken at the local market and to mix up a batch of corn bread for stuffing the bird. Corn meal still is a staple food in the American kitchen, and today, as yesterday, good cooks herald corn bread stuffing as more than a tradition. They like its texture, its taste, and its resistance to soginess.

5 Accidents in Area Are Reported

Since November 1, five accidents have been reported by Patrolman Robert Guide.

On November 4, William Osborne accompanied by John Davidson and Gerald Strong, driving a 1937 Ford coupe, lost control of the car 4 1/2 miles west of O'Neill and rolled over several times. The passengers were uninjured, but the car received considerable damage.

On November 8, Wayne Klinefelter of Ewing, accompanied by Glen Klinefelter, Lonnie Klinefelter and Dixie Fingleton, driving a 1940 Ford was struck from the rear by a Douglas county car at the junction of highways 20 and 275. The passengers were uninjured and the car slightly damaged in the rear.

On November 9, Joe Connaro's and Jack Taylor's cars collided at the corner of Eighth and Adams streets. Connaro going east and Taylor going west attempted left turn. The cars collided. The Connaro car bumped into Joe Strong's house but did not damage it. Both cars were damaged.

On November 9, Melvin Meyer of West Point hit and killed a steer belonging to Art Spittler, 1/2 mile east of the junction 20 and 275. The steer was killed.

On November 11, Miss Marie Grubn and Sgt. Keith Baker of Fairfax, S.D., driving a 1949 Plymouth, struck a bridge 3 1/2 miles east of Inman and rolled over several times. The occupants were hospitalized for a short time at St. Anthony's hospital for cuts and bruises. Sergeant Baker received a broken arm. The car was a total loss.

Form-Signing Deadline Is Extended

"We have just been instructed by the state PMA committee that the closing date for signing the forms ACP-201, 'Request for Assistance,' under the 1953 ACP program, has been extended from November 5 to and including December 1," explained Harry E. Ressel, chairman of the Holt county PMA.

"The community committees have attempted to contact every farm operator in Holt county. However, in some cases several attempts have been futile.

"Indications are that more farm and ranch operators are signing for assistance than in several years past," Ressel added.

OPEN-HOUSE PLANNED

Open-house will be observed Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at a newly-erected National home located 6 blocks north and one-half block west of the traffic signal. This is a project of the North-Nebraska Builders, a firm headed by Harry E. Ressel, Ed Thorin and Francis Gilg. The model home will be furnished by Gambles.

12 States to Get License Clips

Nebraska is one of 12 states in which motorists next year will not get new license plates.

States where car owners instead will get a clip to attach to the old plates are Nebraska, Arizona, California, Connecticut, Indiana, Delaware, Kansas, Maine, Missouri, New Jersey, Oregon and Washington, according to the national disabled American veterans.

Nebraska's color scheme of black numerals on a yellow background will be shared in 1953 with South Carolina, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

Informational Basin Meeting Scheduled

An important informational meeting of the Niobrara Valley Basin development association will be held in O'Neill on Monday, November 24. The meeting will get underway at 8 o'clock in the Holt county courthouse annex. Clyde E. Burdick of Ainsworth, area engineer for the Niobrara basin, will preside. This is an informational meeting intended to bring interested persons up to date on basin development prior to the governor's scheduled meeting here December 16.

Hawaii Statehood

Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Nebr.), who will head the senate interior and insular affairs committee in January, predicted Wednesday in Washington Hawaii will be admitted to the Union as a state by the next congress.

But he said he believed statehood will be denied to Alaska. Butler, whose committee handles such legislation, opposed statehood for both territories when it was proposed earlier this year.

"We'll have a statehood bill for Hawaii," he told a reporter, "and it is my prediction it will pass. I am inclined to think I would support it this time."
