

Time to Trot Down and Buy Yule Cards; Enclosed Letters Contribute Much

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

This is the Thanksgiving issue of The Frontier and that means Christmas is less than a month away. It's time for you to trot right down and buy your Christmas cards. That will give you time to get them all addressed and stamped and time to write some friendly greeting letters to include with them. That's the kind of Christmas greetings most of us like to get.

You'll probably be wanting to give some candy for Christmas for nothing is better than good home made candy and so welcome.

Today I'm going to give you the recipe for—
FRUIT WHITE FUDGE
One cup cream, three cups sugar, four tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup white syrup, one cup nuts, eight marshmallows, (cut fine), one package candied cherries, one package candied pineapple.

Cook the first four ingredients to medium ball stage. Add marshmallows and melt in hot mixture. Beat until fairly stiff, then add the other ingredients and pour into buttered plate. Maraschino cherries may be used instead of the candied cherries, or omit the fruit and nuts and add coconut.

WHIPPED CREAM FUDGE
Three cups brown sugar, one cup milk, 1/2 cup butter, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 square chocolate (chopped), one cup whipped cream, one cup walnut meats (chopped), one teaspoon vanilla. Put the sugar in a sauce pan, add the milk, butter, salt and chocolate, and blend thoroughly. Cook to 245-F. degrees or to the firm ball stage. Remove from heat and beat for about three minutes with wire whisk. Add the whipped cream and beat well, then add the nuts and vanilla. Beat until almost cold, then pour into buttered pans and mark into squares.

Reader Doesn't Understand Pleas for Letters
Dear Blanche:

Well, good morning! Am bringing you a couple of recipes. I like them. Seems too bad you should have to call for letters when so many read The Frontier and I'm sure most of us always turn to your column to see what is good.

CANDIED APPLES ON STICKS
Fourteen to sixteen apples, 2/3 cup molasses or any good dark syrup, 1/3 teaspoon salt, two tablespoons butter, 1 1/2 cups sugar, two teaspoons vanilla, 1/2 cup water. Wash and dry apples. Remove stem and stick pointed end of skewer stick in stem end of apple. Boil without stirring the sugar, water and molasses, salt and vinegar to 270-F. or until it becomes brittle when tried in cold water. Remove syrup from heat, add butter and vanilla and dip each apple in syrup until well coated. Place on waxed paper to dry.

1-2-3 POPCORN OR CARMEL CORN
One tablespoon butter (or fat), two tablespoons sugar three tablespoons popcorn. Put butter and sugar in pan and get it hot, add popcorn and pop. Shake constantly, as it burns easily. Turn out on wax paper to cool. It is delicious. We have been making it for 18 to 20 years.

MRS. ROY LANMAN.

CHRISTMAS TREE TRIM
Dip animal crackers in melted chocolate or colored fondant cream, using just a thin coating. Or use powdered sugar icing and roll in colored sugars and candies. Tie them to the trim and let the children take them from the tree and eat them for your Christmas party.

SAYS SANDHILL SAL

If all the wishes we sightfully think up were laid end to end, we'd all be smothered.
The best way to get things you wish for is to stop itching and scratching for them.
Most people have a couple of helping hands at the end of their own sleeves, if they'd put a little back bone with them.

Army Will Move Out in Deer Hunt

The big game shooting marksmanship of 1,500 Nebraska hunters will get the stern test beginning the half hour before sunrise on Monday, December 1, as the state's seven-day buck deer season get under way in northwestern Nebraska.

The final decision by the game commission as to whether or not the season would actually become a reality was announced only two weeks ago. Drought conditions in the open area threatened to force postponement and even possible cancellation of both the buck and doe seasons.
