LETTERS TO EDITOR
November 12, 1952

Dear Sir:
I am one of the many marines attached to the First Marines now serving in Korea.

I have been here a little over five months now and it gets a little boring with no one writing you or no one to write.

I know I am not the only one who thinks that many of the people back home have forgotten us. It is bad enough being so many miles from your country and in a way worse when there is no mail.

Maybe if you were to print this in your newspaper I would get a little response from some one back home.

Respectfully yours,
