Jean Eloise Woods Weds at Lincoln

PAGE—The marriage of Miss Jean Eloise Woods, daughter of C. A. Woods of Raymond and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Copes of Page, to Harry Pappas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pappas of Lincoln, was solemnized at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, November 26, at the First Presbyterian church at Lincoln. The lines of the service were read by Rev. C. Vin White. Lighted tapers in floor candelabra and arrangements of white chrysanthemums appointed the chancel. The tapers were lighted by Ronnie Pappas.

Miss Grace Finch played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Frances Mace who sang, "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a gown of bridal satin designed in the after-five mode. Rolled collar and yoke of chantilly lace accented the snugly buttoned bodice which was completed by long sleeves and a gored skirt flared into hem-line width. A satin cap trimmed with pearls held her short illusion veil. She carried a white Bible ornamented with an orchid.

The maid-of-honor, the bride's only attendant, was Miss Margaret Olson, who was frocked in mint green tulle fashioned with a full ballerina-length skirt. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and wore a coronet of

1933 Hudsons Stress Beauty, Performance

The new Hudsons have sleek, low-sweeping lines and a road-hugging appearance made possible only by Hudson's famed "step-down" design, according to Gerry Gonderinger of the Gonderinger Motor company, Atkinson, where the 1933 Hudson is on display. Front end has been restyled with modern, air-scoop type hood ornaments blending into sleek hood lines. Luxurious interiors are decorator-planned to complement a wide range of new exterior car colors. Shown (above) is the Hudson Hornet, record-smashing performer in stock car racing and holder of all national AAA records for stock cars.

CAUGHT "RED HANDED" WITH THE BEST OF CHRISTMAS TOYS

... Toy John Deere Farm Equipment

That's right! Santa, himself, finds it hard to pass up playing with the realistic, pint-size toy John Deere Farm Implements. See them and you'll understand why youngsters, too, like them so well.

There's a complete line for the young farmer—a plow that raises or lowers for transporting or plowing; a rubber-tired wagon that handles a big load of play grain; a toy manure spreader that actually spreads sand and sawdust; a disk harrow that angles and straightens; and, of course, a sturdy, toy tractor that will be your youngster's prize possession.

Boys and girls, alike, get a big thrill out of being farmers just like Dad. This Christmas, set them up in farming with these wonderful, small-scale implements. See us now while there's still a good supply.
