

The Frontier Woman . . .
Christmas Season Is Time to Especially Remember Birth of Christ Child

Don't you just love this season with the Christmas cards streaming in and the gift packages arriving . . . the Christmas tree up . . . goodies being cooked every now and then . . . and the house getting cleaned from top to bottom?

Christmas cards are so pretty, why not use them as house decorations? Fasten them to a small Christmas tree, or thumb tack them around a big double window. Fasten a wide red ribbon over an arch and secure around it, pinning the cards to this.

At our house we have a Christmas tree rack. It is made particularly for Christmas cards and holds about a hundred of them. It is three sided and adequately displays the prettiest Christmas cards we receive.

As the cards arrive, if they have a return address, clip and slide it into an envelope. Those that do not have, write down in a note book.

Keep the little notebook with the envelope of return addresses, and you'll be all set for 1953, and won't have to scramble for addresses again.

Remember that while you can use a two cent stamp to send a Christmas card, you can't seal it, or write a letter inside. It's better to use a 3-cent stamp, then if your friends have moved it will be forwarded and if you made a mistake on the address it can be returned to you.

Speaking of Christmas cards, why not buy a few extra ones and send one to each of the shut-ins who you know?

Mrs. Redlinger Wins Subscription
 Dear Readers of Frontier Woman: Since I wrote before we've had a new addition to our family, a little son—Oral John—has come to join his two sisters, Cheryl and Beverly. The girls are delighted over their new brother and who isn't when one of these little ones arrive?
 I certainly can say that I think each and every homemaker will be having plenty to do between now and the Christmas season. I for one know I have several projects started that were left undone because of our son putting in his appearance.

It's a few short days until Christmas, the time when we should especially remember the Christ child, the one who now can set men free from fear and sin, and give a peace in one's heart which no one else can supply.

I found a poem which I think fits back to the time of Christ and up to the present day. I like it and so will pass it on to others.

WHERE IS HOME?
 "What makes a home?"
 I asked my little boy,
 And this is what he said,
 "You, mother,
 And when father comes
 Our table set all shiny,
 And my bed,
 And, Mother, I think it's home
 Because we love each other."
 You who are old and wise,
 What would you say
 If you were asked the question?
 Tell me, pray,
 And simply as a little child,
 The old wise ones can answer
 nothing more.
 A man, a woman and a child,
 Their love,
 Warm as the golden heart fire
 Along the floor.
 A table, and a lamp for light,
 Only the old, sweet fundamental things,
 And long ago I learned—
 Home may be near, home may be far,
 But it is anywhere
 That Love
 And a few plain household treasures are.
 MRS. REUBEN REDLINGER

SAYS SANDHILL SAL

If you don't get what you want for Christmas, be philosophic. You might have gotten left entirely, you know.
 You don't have to keep up with the Joneses in giving. One of the worst sins committed against Christ's birthday is to give beyond our means when you might have given sensibly and happily and enjoyed the giving.

CHINCHILLA SQUABBLES
 It seems chinchillas have marital difficulties, too—at least that is the case with two chinchillas owned by George C. Fisher of Bird City. Grandpa chinchilla, Fisher said, deserted grandma for two days and one night. Upon his return, grandma nipped at grandpa's feet until he could hardly move.

EXTRA BLOOD
 Anyone with an extra gallon of blood may qualify for membership in the Red Cross gallon club. A new gallon club at Rising City has five members, each of whom has donated blood eight times to the Red Cross bloodmobile unit.

In Leading Role
 Guy Harris, who attends Wesleyan university at Lincoln, portrayed one of the leading roles in the play, "Smilin' Through," which was held Wednesday through Saturday, December 10-13, in the university auditorium.
