

When You & I Were Young . . . Captain Carney Killed in Crash

Navy Officer Dies in Pacific

The old saying "Lot's of snow in the winter, lot's of rain in the summer," has proved to be a true one. Even the oldest inhabitant fails to recall a winter like this. Heavy snow played havoc with the Elkhorn train service. . . Don't throw away your pipe next Thursday when you swear off smoking. You'll be looking for it or buying a new one before the week ends. . . The Chambers mail route is the only stage line running that has made schedule the past 10 days. . . A Kitten-dorf perished in a snow drift one mile from his home on Christmas eve. He was found by his son on Christmas morning.

25 Years Ago
Bennett Gilligan came home on Monday from Kemper military academy at Boonville, Mo., to spend the holidays. The operating department of the Interstate Power company enjoyed a theater party followed by a banquet in the local office Tuesday night. . . ### Keycees Entertain Ful House

A "full house" of kids best described the Sunday evening Christmas party sponsored by members of Charles Carroll of Carrollton council of the Knights of Columbus. The clubrooms were swarming with school-age and pre-school age children, who were guests of the Knights.
Two cartoon films were shown, Santa interviewed many of the children, and goodies were passed out.
Grand Knight Robert Shoemaker, Ed Wilson headed the arrangements committee for the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Fridley were Sunday evening callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Deval.

The splendid spirit of the season shines in the hearts of men.
