

Eagles Hit Neligh 64-44 for 5th Win

Triumph Minus Chace and Closson

The O'Neill high Eagles breezed to 64-44 triumph over the visiting Neligh high Warriors here Tuesday night minus the services of Larry Chace, speedy forward who was nursing an injury, and Cliff Closson, who has been obliged to drop school.

It was the fifth win in six starts for Coach Paul Baker's Blues. O'Neill led 17-8 at the quarter, 31-15 at intermission, and 46-24 going into the final stanza. Long Gary Buckmaster pumped in 24 points and Davey Eby's rebound work sparkled. Gabelman was best for the losers with 17.

The O'Neill seconds copped, 42-26.

Spencer will be here Friday night with Ray Sharp averaging 20 points per for the Boyd club. Ainsworth comes next Tuesday. This one may determine the North-Central loop title. Ainsworth triumphed, 49-44 in a pre-Christmas engagement.
