Weds Donna Davis

Weds Daniel DeBacker

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the scene of a wedding Saturday, January 3, at 9 a.m. when Miss Donna L. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis, became the bride of Daniel A. DeBacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. DeBacker. In a setting of poinsettias, Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of egg shell satin featuring a yoke of brocaded satin over lace with a high square collar that turned back. The long tight fitted sleeves ended in a point at the wrist and the skirt fell into a long train. She wore a cathedral length veil and carried a bouquet of red roses. She wore the traditional something old and something new.

The bride's attendants were Miss Diane DeBacker, maid-of-honor, who wore an orchid nylon net over satin; Miss Mary Jo Hynes wore a gold satin gown, and Miss Peggy Sullivan wore a blue net gown. All carried bouquets of yellow carnations. The bridegroom wore his navy uniform. His attendants were James DeBacker, bestman, who wore his air force uniform; Donald Borg and Rob Prouty, ushers, wore their army uniforms.

For the ceremony Mrs. William Pettigrove played the wedding march and accompanied Robert Hynes as he sang "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy," "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" and the duet, "Ave Maria," was sung by Miss Catherine Condon and Robert Hynes.

The bride's mother chose a black taffeta dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a beige crepe dress. Each wore red rose-bud corsages.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the M&M cafe for the immediate family, attendants, close relatives, Father O'Sullivan and Rev. Kenneth Carl.

A reception was held in the G. C. DeBacker home from 2 to 4 o'clock for 65 guests, who were served wedding cake, ice cream and coffee. The centerpiece was a bouquet of white mums. The wedding cake, which was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was flanked with candles in silver holders. During the reception Robert Hynes and Daniel DeBacker sang several solos and Mrs. William Pettigrove played several selections on the piano.

Mrs. Ray Ellsberry, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book and gifts.

Mrs. DeBacker chose a powder blue suit with navy accessories for her going away costume. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. DeBacker will return to O'Neill before leaving for San Diego, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed at a naval base.

Among outoftown guests who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ellsberry of Atkinson; Capt. and Mrs. William Pettigrove, recently returned from Japan; James DeBacker, stationed in Mississippi; Donald Borg, stationed in Germany; Mr. and Mrs. John Krysl and Ray of Stuart.
