LaVonne Albright Weds Arnott Buxton

PAGE—Miss La Vonne Albright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gailord Albright, and Arnott W. Buxton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Buxton, were united in marriage Sunday, January 11, at 3 p.m., at the Methodist church in Page. Rev. C. E. Wilcox performed the double-ring ceremony.

The chancel was decorated with candelabra of white tapers and tall baskets of white gladioli.

Mrs. Lewis Coppel of Omaha sang "Through the Years" and "Because," accompanied by Miss Ruth Parks of Page, who played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of cream colored bridal satin. It was fashioned with a collar and yoke of chantilly lace. The bodice skirt of waltz length fell from a pointed bodice. Her fingertip veil of imported Swiss illusion fell from a pearl encrusted tiara. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Stevens of O'Neill, sister of the bride, served as matron-of-honor. She wore a gown of mint green taffeta with a full skirt and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and wore a halo of yellow rosebuds in her hair.

The bridegroom wore a brown business suit with a carnation boutonniere. He was attended by his brother, Richard Buxton.

The bride's mother wore a mist black taffeta dress with black accessories and the bridegroom's mother appeared in a dress of dark brown with beige accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. There were guests from Omaha, Lincoln, Plainview, O'Neill and Clearwater. Mrs. Norman Trowbridge of Plainview had charge of the guest book.

Kitchen honors went to Mesdames Robert Gray, Arnold Stewart, Cordes Walker and Gene Mudloff. They also had charge of decorations. Refreshments were served by Miss Audrey Braddock and Miss Jane Parks.

The table was decorated with candles and flowers. The centerpiece was a three-tiered wedding cake with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

The bride was graduated from Page high school and attended Wayne State Teachers college. Last year she taught in the Mapleton, Ia., public school. She is now teaching in the Beatrice public school.

The bridegroom was graduated from Page high school. He served 14 months in the Korea war zone.

For traveling the bride chose a dark suit with navy accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Buxton left after the reception for a short honeymoon to Kansas City, Mo. After their return they will be at home in Beatrice.

METHODIST (Emmet)

Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor
There are three events each week for the folks of the Emmet church that help bring religious nurture to the people of that community. The first of these is the combination of services that takes place each Sunday morning at 9:45. At the same time as the worship services, the church school meets. Children are enjoying the study time under the direction of Mrs. William Serck.

Adults and youth are attending the worship service. There they sing the great hymns of the church and hear the gospel proclaimed. Join your neighbors from the Emmet community at church on Sunday morning.

The third event is the Bible study. Men and women of the community, under the direction of the pastor, are studying the entire Bible in 26 sessions. Call the pastor soon and find out where the next meeting will be held. It's every Wednesday at 8 p.m.

A fourth activity is for women only. It's the Women's Society of Christian Service. This week it meets at the home of Mrs. Geary Embody, Thursday, 2 p.m. Calling all women.

Newlyweds Will Reside in France

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the scene of a wedding on Saturday, January 10, at a 9:30 a.m. ceremony when Miss Mary Joann Hynes, daughter of Mrs. Loretta Hynes, became the bride of Donald W. Borg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Borg. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Robert Hynes, chose a gown of white satin featuring a bodice of lace, long tight fitting sleeves and a train. The veil fell to the waist from a beaded tiara. She wore three strands pearl choker and carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Mary Ann Gallagher, wore a formal of blue net over satin and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Daniel DeBacker, who wore a gold suit in formal and carried a bouquet of Japanese iris, and Miss Helen Hynes, sister of the bride, who wore a formal of orchid net over satin and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom wore a light brown suit and a white carnation boutonniere. The bestman was Jack Langan. He wore a gray suit. The ushers were Daniel DeBacker, who wore a brown suit, and Russell Borg, brother of the bridegroom, who wore a gray suit. All of the bridegroom's attendants wore white carnation boutonnieres.

Sister M. Flores played the wedding march and accompanied Robert Hynes as he sang "On This Day," "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus."

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a gold suit with navy accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a rose dress with black accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

The reception was held in the bride's home for 250 guests from 2 to 4 p.m. The table was decorated with red roses and the three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, which was baked by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs.

AXEL BORG

Mrs. Ronald Borg was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Gerald Harding had charge of the gifts.

For a going-away costume, Mrs. Borg chose a powder blue suit with navy accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Borg took a short trip in eastern Nebraska. On January 28 they will go to Omaha from where they will fly to New York City and remain there until January 31 when they will fly to Paris, France. Corporal Borg is stationed with the army at St. Jean, France, where he manages a service club. They will reside in an apartment at St. Jean.

The bride is a graduate with the class of 1949 from St. Mary's academy. She attended Briar Cliff college, Sioux City, for one year and has been employed at the REA office here for the past 2 1/2 years.

The bridegroom attended O'Neill public school and enlisted in the army in 1951. He has been stationed at St. Jean for the past 3 months.
