

Hynes - Geneureux Nuptials Read

St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill was the scene of a wedding on Tuesday, January 20, at 9 p. m. when Miss Mary Janelle Hynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hynes, became the bride of Louis A. Geneureux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Geneureux of Bartlett. In a setting of snapdragons and gladioluses, Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a white satin off-the-shoulder gown, which featured a net yoke, long sleeves that ended in a point at the wrist and a peplum at the waist. The skirt fell into a cathedral length train. The white nylon net veil, which was edged with lace, was held in place with a beaded tiara. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Donald Borg, matron-of-honor, wore a gold satin formal. The bridesmaids were: Miss Katherine Ann Golden, who wore pink formal of lace over satin; Miss Lu Ann Fritton, who wore a salmon colored formal of net over satin; Miss Joan Langgan, who wore an orchid formal of dotted swiss over satin. All of the bride's attendants carried bouquets of white mums and snapdragons.

The bridegroom wore a light blue-gray suit and a white rose boutonniere. Dale Nissen was the bestman; the ushers were Matthew Hynes, brother of the bride, Donald Borg and Stanley Geneureux, cousin of the bridegroom. Each wore a white carnation boutonniere with their light colored suits.

Sister M. Fiore played the wedding march and accompanied Robert Hynes, a cousin of the bride, as he sang "Ave Maria," "On This Day" and "Panis Angelicus."

The bride's mother, Mrs. Matt Hynes, chose a gray and black check suit with black and white accessories for the wedding. The bridegroom's mother chose a gray suit with black accessories for the wedding. Each wore a white gardenia corsage.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Town House from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. for 100 guests including Father O'Sullivan and Rev. Kenneth Carl. The bride's table was decorated with white mums, snapdragons and pinks. Mrs. John DeWitt served the wedding cake. Miss Helen Hynes, Miss Regina Hynes and Mrs. Oswald Druke served the coffee to the guests.

Miss Barbara Becker had charge as the guest book and Miss Katherine Judge was in charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Geneureux chose a rust suit with green accessories for her going away costume. After a trip to New Mexico and Texas, the couple will reside on a ranch near Bartlett.

Mrs. Geneureux is a graduate of St. Mary's academy in 1951 and has been at home since. Mr. Geneureux is a graduate of St. Mary's academy in 1950 and has been helping his father on a ranch since his graduation.

Among the out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Geneureux and Stanley of Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Zelenda and family of Schuyler; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hendricks, all of Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Prus and family of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hensen and family of Bartlett; Mrs. Margaret Reinhardt and Mr. and Mrs. John Rotherham, jr., all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hynes and family of Columbus, and Mr. and Mrs. Art Geneureux of Bartlett.

Donna R. O'Connell Becomes a Bride

Baskets of white gladioluses on the altar of Sacred Heart Catholic church at Norfolk formed the background for the 9 o'clock wedding Tuesday morning, January 6, of Miss Donna R. O'Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Connell, 110 E. Philip ave., and William Luebbers, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Luebbers, Osmond. Msgr. Robert P. Burns officiated with the single-ring ceremony.

The O'Connell family formerly lived on a farm north of Atkinson before moving to Norfolk about a year ago.

Miss Emily Truedell sang "Panis Angelicus," "Ave Maria," "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" and "Oh Lord, I Am Not Worthy." Miss Ann Classen was accompanist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white satin gown fashioned with a fitted bodice featuring a high neckline and long sleeves that topped a full gathered skirt. A beaded cap held her fingers to net veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Shirley O'Connell, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a gown of blue net over taffeta made with short puffed sleeves, a low neckline and gathered skirt. She wore a matching headband and carried white carnations.

Other attendants were Miss Arlene Luebbers, Osmond, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. George Luebbers, Osmond, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Miss Luebbers wore pink and Mrs. Luebbers was gowned in blue. The gowns were made alike with cape sleeves, low necklines and full gathered skirts. They wore matching headbands and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Mrs. O'Connell chose a blue wool suit with pink carnations and the mother of the bridegroom wore a black dress matched with a pink carnation corsage.

George Luebbers was bestman and ushers were Richard Goebels and Matt Luebbers of Osmond.

Members of their immediate families were guests at the home of the bride's parents for a reception after the ceremony. Pink and blue tapers and a three-tiered wedding cake decorated the serving table.

The couple lived in Osmond with the bridegroom's parents until January 14 when he left for the service. Upon completion of his basic training, Mrs. Luebbers plans to join him.

Chochoere-Gibson Nuptials in Texas

The Baptist church in Houston, Tex., was the scene of a wedding at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, December 27, when Miss Marie Chochoere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chochoere of 406 East Whitney Drive, Houston, Tex., became the bride of A/1c Donald J. Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gibson of O'Neill. In a setting of white gladiolus and mums, Rev. Leoy Pearson officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white ballerina length gown of net over satin that featured a lace jacket with a peter pan collar. Her lace veil was held in place with an orange blossom crown. She carried a white orchid and carnation corsage on a white Bible, which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Martha Bell Cheshier, maid-of-honor, wore an orchid ballerina length gown of net over satin. Miss Louisa Randall, who wore a blue ballerina length gown of net over satin, and Miss Annie Williams, who wore a gold ballerina length gown of net over satin, were the bridesmaids. All of the bride's attendants carried bouquets of mums that were contrasting color to their gown. Misses Wilma Dean Chochoere, who wore a green ballerina length gown and Wanda Jean Chochoere, who wore a yellow ballerina length gown, were the junior bridesmaids. They carried miniature bouquets of yellow mums.

The bridegroom and Charles Marsten, bestman, were attired in their air force uniforms. Arthur G. Chochoere, warden's bailiff, and Richard Nixon, who wore a gray suit, served as groomsmen. Harold Manahan and Johnny Sullivan were the ushers at the wedding. Gary Beams was the ring bearer and he wore a blue suit.

Wade Burleson played the wedding march and accompanied Miss Joyce Harris, who wore a white ballerina length gown, as she sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a navy blue suit with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose a gray crepe dress with black accessories. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony the reception was held in the bride's home. Misses LaNell Phillips and Kathleen Reeves were hostesses at the reception. Miss Martha Ann Phillips had charge of the guest book.

Those who attended the wedding from O'Neill were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Harden Anspach and their daughter, Mrs. Charles Marsten of Waco, Tex., formerly of O'Neill.
