

Ewing Newlyweds to Live in Oregon

EWING—Miss Rosetta Boies, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Boies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dunaway, also of Ewing, were married Wednesday, February 4, at an afternoon service at Christ Lutheran church in O'Neill. Rev. R. W. Olson officiated with the double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown made of white net over white satin. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a pleated cap trimmed in lace. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses.

Mrs. Robley Sisson, jr., sister of the bride, was the matron-of-honor. She wore an aqua-colored gown fashioned similarly to the bride's gown. She wore a corsage of roses.

Dana Sisson was bestman. After the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the Broadway cafe in Ewing with Mr. and Mrs. Robley Sisson, jr., as hosts. Close friends and relatives of the newlyweds were guests.

For a wedding trip to Portland, Ore., where the couple will live, the bride wore a grey silk jersey with red accessories.

The bride graduated from Ewing high school with the class of 1952 and taught in a rural school near Ewing. During her years in high school she assisted as operator in the Ewing telephone exchange. The bridegroom graduated from the Ewing high school in 1949 and has taught school in the Ewing vicinity.

4-H Slides Shown to Group

The Willing Workers 4-H club met Friday, February 6, in the Neil Dawes home for the purpose of reorganizing for the coming year.

The club chose homemaking, poultry and gardening as their projects for the coming year. Mrs. Charles Crook has charge of the homemaking division, Charles Crook the gardening, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bellin the poultry, and Mrs. Dawes will be the overall leader.

The officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Konrad Smith, president; Perry Dawes, vice-president; Judy Smith, secretary; Beverly Britzell, news reporter, and Larry Dawes, song leader.

At the close of the meeting, Mr. Dawes showed the group slides on 4-H work. Later refreshments of pop corn and candy were served.—Beverly Britzell, news reporter.
