What's in a Name?

should come, you'll have to TURNER around and come home.

I'm not LAYH-ing but O'DONNELL come for us. He never will SHIERK his duty toward me. And besides, he's as STRONG and STOUT as the FOREMAN up on the HILL who sang "FORBEE'S a JOLLY good fellow" on the "Voice of the Frontier" last week.

I hear he went to GROSEN-BACH again FRIDLEY or Saturday in DEBARKER the truck without that old CRABB of a driver knowing it. DEBOLT of the axle was loose and it was a rough ride.

He's a good RODMAN and has shot even LYONS in Africa. On his last HOLLIDAY he HUNT-ed and HUNT-ed and only brought home a WHITE FOX and a WOLFE although he GALLUP-ed all day on his HORISKEY. He's also ambi-DEXTER-ous.

Say, since sitting here, I haven't seen a DISHNER a cup. Where's the waitress?

Say, there's no CORK on HARBOTTLE of pop. FULLER up again anyway. They say they are getting FUHRER and FUHRER of them.

HEERMANN give me a lift with this heavy tray.

They say he's so STRONG because he goes HERLEY to bed, but lately he's PHALIN.

That PORTER at the hotel is this waitress' HUBBY. He's a NEWMAN around here and a MERRIMAN. He used to be a STEWART at the country club. His folks homesteaded on the FRONTIER.

PARKER anyplace, Bub, because spaces are at a premium. Or COOPER up in some garage. Naw, it cost too many COYNES.

DARLING, eat up and B. HARTY. We've a long trip ahead.

I'll leave no STONE unturned until I find the culprit that wrote this. I'll SKINNER alive or KILHAM.

ENRIGHT here.
