Weather Forces Sale Postponements

March 3 New Date for Bull Auction

Tuesday, March 3, is the new date for the annual spring show and sale for the North-Central Nebraska Hereford Breeders' association to be held at the sale pavilion in Bassett.

Announcement of the new date was made Monday by Elmer ("Tug") Phillips, secretary-manager.

The snow storm and blizzard conditions last Thursday and Friday blocked off roads and made it difficult to get to the sale on Saturday, February 21, as scheduled, even though some of the 62 registered Herefords to be offered were already in the pens.

Adverse weather conditions also forced postponement of other sales in the O'Neill region.

Last Thursday's regular weekly sale at the O'Neill Livestock Market was called off even though buyers and shippers from points east and south of O'Neill were on hand.

A highlight of the sale was 14 registered Aberdeen-Angus from the Wilbur Lynch herd at the sale.

On Friday, February 20, a sale of household goods belonging to Mrs. Seth Noble and Mrs. Dorothy Gerin was scheduled at the Noble residence.

On Friday, February 27, at 3:30 p.m., Col. Wallace O'Neill, auctioneer and Bill Bowker, clerk.

The sale of a five-room O'Neill residence, located two blocks south and one-half block west of the traffic signal (or across the street from the Wilbur Lynch herd) was scheduled for Saturday, February 21.

The owners, Mr. and Mrs. George Layh, who also were offering some personal property, decided Saturday morning to delay the sale one week because of the severe two-day storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stewart had a sale of personal property booked for Friday, February 27, but a weekend's storm prompted them to postpone it "for several weeks."

The Stewart's phoned their postponement "Voice of the Frontier" in time to be announced on last Saturday's program. They declared they would be 10 days uncovering the snow from the property they planned to sell.

They were offering 54 head of good Herefords in addition to ranch machinery. Col. Wallace O'Neill National bank, clerk.

Mrs. Halsey Hull, who last week advertised a sale for February 24, carried out her sale as scheduled. Attendance was restricted, however, because of adverse road conditions.

The 314-acre Holt county farm, located immediately west of the Municipal airport, will be sold at auction on Friday, March 6, in order to settle the estate of the late Henry and Alvina Wayman. The executor is Ed Wayman. The farm consists of 58 acres of good number 1 bottomland, 156 acres under cultivation and the balance is in pasture, alfalfa, trees and improvements. (See advertisement on page 5.) Col. Wallace O'Neill, O'Neill, is auctioneer; Col. Vern Reynolds, O'Neill, auctioneer and broker.

A loving cup will be presented at the North-Central Hereford sale at Bassett for the consignor showing the best pen of three bulls.

The Frontier inaugurated the traveling football show this year and presented it at the recent Holt County Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' association show and sale and the recent Holt County Hereford Breeders' association show and sale.

The 71 members of the O'Neill combined concert band from the O'Neill public school and St. Mary's academy will present a concert of varied music, some serious, some light, some novel. The theme of this concert is "Music for Everybody."

The concert is scheduled for 8:15 p.m., Sunday, March 1, at the O'Neill public school auditorium.

Featured members of the organization will be a cornet trio—Duane Booth, Pat DeBolt and Evelyn Asher—playing "The Three Trumpeters." Elizabeth Schaffer is slated to play a trombone solo.

Soloists in the popular, rhythmic novelty "Waggy for Woodwinds" are: Flute—Helen Hardy, clarinet—Esther Kaiser and Rose Mary Corle, alto saxophone—Ellen Corle, tenor saxophone—Paul Shelhamer.

Numbers designed for quick appeal and popular with band audiences all over America are selections from "Guys and Dolls," "Waggy for Woodwinds" and the "Blue Tail-Fly."

Agostini; Pavane — Ravel; Two Moods Overture Grandman Storm King March — Finlayson; INTERMISSION; Guys and Dolls Overture — Loesser; Morecau Symphonique Guilment; Si Trocadero—Mambo — Walters; Waggy for Woodwinds; Walters; Blue Tail-Fly — Grandman; At the Circus — Jones; Brass Pageantry — Ostling.
