Governor Urges

Purchase of Seals

Gov. Robert Crosby has issued a proclamation urging Nebraskans to support the 1953 Easter seal sale of the Nebraska Society for Crippled Children. The nationwide campaign opens Thursday, March 5, and continues until Easter Sunday, April 5. "Helping dependent, crippled children to become productive citizens is a basic precept of good citizenship," he declared. "It is a privilege to help them to happy, more useful lives."

The governor also urged greater help in this year's drive to meet rising costs in vital services to an increasing number of handicapped children.

Oscar D. Mardis, state president of the Easter seal agency, called on each of the 61 county organizations to bend every effort to make this a banner year for seal sales.

Campaign plans were discussed at a meeting of county chairmen held in Grand Island, February 28.

State headquarters for the Easter seal agency are in 1504 Dodge street, Omaha. S. Orson Perkins is executive secretary.
