Freedom Award to Lutherans

Dr. John W. Behnen, president of the Lutheran church (Missouri synod), is shown accepting the principal 1952 Freedom Foundation award in the 16-mm. motion picture category from Vice-President Richard M. Nixon. Mr. Nixon made the presentation on behalf of Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge during a special George Washington's birthday ceremony, Dr. Kenneth D. Wells, president of the Foundation, looks on. The Lutheran church (Missouri synod) received the Freedom Foundation award for production of its feature length film "All That I Have." This film was used by the Missouri synod in connection with its "Conquest for Christ" effort conducted last year. This effort resulted in contributions from Missouri synod members of over thirteen million dollars in addition to the regular budget of the church body. The Presbyterian church, USA, has purchased prints of "All That I Have" for use in a similar campaign to be conducted by that church body during 1953.

Melena and Mrs. B. T. Herford assisting.
The men's council of the church met on Monday evening in the church basement with a good representation of the men present. The program for the evening was a report of the meeting of the national council in Chicago, Ill., brought by Sewell Johnson, Charles Mulford and Stanley Cobb of the Atkinson, Cleveland and Stuart churches. Other guests from the visiting churches were McClurg, Allen and Hickok.
Charles Mulford, president of the Presbytery council, suggested that the O'Neill chapter might nominate a candidate for vice-president of the Presbytery and a vote of the group D. H. Clauson was approved for the nomination. If elected to the office he will be entitled to represent the Presbytery at the national council next year.
The men also voted to purchase a piano for the use of the Sunday-school and made provision for raising the money.
Following the program the chairman called on Dewey Schaffer for a report of his recent visit to Washington, D.C. The men heard and discussed the matters concerning cattlemen and farmers of the nation.

METHODIST (Emmett)

Drying Roads — Increased Receipts
● Around three hundred head of cattle, mostly yearlings and calves, are expected in the regular weekly sale today (Thursday). There'll be the usual offering of cows and butcher cattle.
● Around three hundred hogs are expected in connection with the hog sale, including about two hundred feeder pigs.
● Today's receipts might be larger than expected with the improved condition of rural roads. Many farm families have been either snowbound or mudbound for the past month, restricting receipts at our sale.
