

Band Uniforms Put on Display Culminates Drive for Funds

PAGE—The Page public school band presented a concert Tuesday evening, March 31. Thirty brand new uniforms purchased earlier were displayed. The concert marked the first formal appearance of the new suits, which were purchased with funds raised by a variety of community projects.

Meanwhile, the Page Commercial club will honor the PHS basketball teams at a banquet on Tuesday, April 7, in the school gymnasium. Harold Thompson, Norfolk Junior college coach, has been named the principal speaker. Mr. Thompson was the Page high school coach in 1942.

This will be the second banquet honoring the Page varsity team, which completed a very successful season by virtue of its 20 wins and only five reversals. The Eagles captured the district class C cage title.
