

Sing Carols on Easter Morning Primary Group in Egg Hunt

CELIA—The little Misses Junie and Karen Focken spent Saturday night with Alice Focken and they attended sunrise services and also attended the Easter egg hunt on the lawn of Reverend Payas' home. They accompanied others of the primary Sunday school class when they went carolling before breakfast Easter morning. Friday the pupils and teacher, Mrs. Emil Colfack, of Lauridsen school had an Easter party at their school. The mothers and pre-school children of the district attended. Games were played and prizes given.
