

IN THE CHURCHES

METHODIST (O'Neill)

Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor
Today (Thursday), at 2 p.m. the Women's Society of Christian Service meets in the church basement for a regular meeting. There'll be worship, a lesson, a business meeting and refreshments. The women of the Methodist church, 21 and older, do not need an invitation. At 7 p.m. the choir has a weekly rehearsal. It was a beautiful anthem that they brought on Easter Sunday. At 8 p.m. the youth fellowship, high school and older, meets. There'll be a lesson, worship, fellowship and recreation.

Sunday, April 12, at 10 a.m., the Sunday morning church school with classes for all ages. There's a new class being organized. It's a Bible class and the superintendent, Neil Dawes, is searching for a teacher. At 11 a.m. the worship service is held with hymns of the church, an anthem by the adult choir, a story for the children, reception of members, baptism of infants, a sermon on a pertinent theme by the pastor, prayers and fellowship. At 6:30 p.m. the intermediate fellowship and choir meet.

Also, next Sunday, a rally for the Methodist youth fellowship, high school age. Cars will leave O'Neill at 1:30 p.m. for Randolph for the district rally. Special features of the day include: The preaching of E. Wesley Perry of Omaha, the international team from Morningside college which will lead discussion and recreation, a talk by Carl Spencer on Methodism's emphasis on youth, news from the summer camps, election of officers and supper.

Monday, April 13: Regular monthly meeting of the official board, 8 p.m. We must start our plans for concluding the year.
Tuesday, April 14: The young adult fellowship meets at the church basement for an evening of fellowship, worship, business, refreshment, recreation. Don't wait for an invitation!

METHODIST (Emmett)

Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor
This coming Sunday should be another big day in the life of your church. There'll be worship and study for men, women and children at the regular 9:45 a.m. hour. Mrs. Serck is in charge of the nursery-church school. Bring the children! During the worship the older children, youth and adults will sing the grand hymns of the church, pray together, and meditate. The doors of the church will be opened for membership. Children will receive the sacrament of baptism.

On Wednesday, 8 p.m., the Bible study group meets again. We're in the New Testament now. Learn about the life of the Master whose resurrection we've just commemorated.
Women's Society of Christian Service meets this next week, too, 2 p.m. For announcement as to place, attend the services of the church next Sunday.

Sunday, April 12, at Randolph is the district rally, at 2:30 to 8 p.m., for youth. On the program are: Dr. E. Wesley Perry of Omaha's First church, Carl Spencer of Lynch, the international team from Morningside college, Sioux City, Clare VanMetre of Carroll. Leave Emmet at 1:15.
