Eloise Rustad Becomes Bride of Bancroft Farmer

STUART — Miss Eloise Rustad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rustad of Northfield, Minn., was united in marriage to Donald Carey, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Carey of Loveland, Colo., on Thursday, April 2, at Forrester Grove Presbyterian church at Forrester, Ill. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Orin Graf, officiating at the bridegroom and former pastor at Stuart.

Mrs. Carey, a trained Christian worker, had been in this community the past 2½ years. She first came here with Miss Margaret Hannill as a youth mission team. Later she returned here as assistant to Reverend Graf and supplied the pulpits of the Cleveland Presbyterian and the Stuart Community churches. Reverend Graf married her in March of this year.

She received her training at Northwestern Bible institute, Minneapolis, Minn., and Rockmont college, Denver, Colo. Mr. Carey is a graduate of the Bancroft high school and attended business college. He is a veteran of three years of service in World War II in North Africa and Europe and has farmed since his discharge in 1946.
