

Corsage Presented to Mrs. Nellie Starr

CHAMBERS.—The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday, April 2, at the home of Mrs. Anna Albers with Mrs. Steve Shavlik as cohostess.

Nineteen members were present. The business session was conducted by the president, who opened the meeting with a prayer. Several minor business matters were discussed. It was voted to have a mother-daughter banquet on April 30.

A corsage was presented to Mrs. Nellie Starr, one of the charter members, whose name was presented at the Woman's society conference in Lincoln.

The devotionals were led by Mrs. R. K. Platt and the lesson on "The Old, Old Story" was given by Mrs. Herman Cook. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

A meeting was held April 16 at the church with Mrs. Lloyd Gled and Mrs. Kenneth Werner as hostesses.

Ewing FHA One of 11 Honor Chapters

EWING.—The Ewing FHA was named one of the honor chapters at the sixth annual state convention of the FHA held at Lincoln. This honor is given to chapters for the work done during the year. The theme of the convention was "Stepping Stones to a Happy Home."

Geraldine Bauer and Judy Jeffries cast Ewing's official vote for state officers. One candidate for state treasurer was Miss Helen Rotherham of Ewing, who was defeated in the election by Barbara Hungerford of Bassett. Diana Baum, president of the Ewing chapter, assisted by Bethel Daniels, checked registration badges and programs.

After the convention the Ewing delegates toured the capitol building and Morrell hall, then left for Omaha where they attended the ice capades. This trip was a special treat for six of the girls who had never been in Lincoln or Omaha.

The FHA party arrived home at 3:50 a.m. Sunday. Mrs. Catherine Carlson sponsored a car.

The FHA chapter has received an award from the Save the Children Federation in recognition of the bundle day drive in which the chapter participated during the national FHA week.

The FHA group cancelled a trip to Springfield (Keya Paha county high school) Wednesday evening, April 15, due to road conditions. Miss Pruden, who is also advisor for district 8, plans to visit each chapter in this district taking on each trip some members from the Ewing FHA.

On Monday evening, April 13, Miss Pruden accompanied by Vera Daniels, Marilyn Weyhrich,

THE FRONTIER, O'Neill, Nebr., Thurs., Apr. 23, 1953.—PAGE

Bonnie Jo Jefferies, Doris Ann Spahn, Betty Ann Van Vleck, and Helen Rotherham went to Creighton, where they were guests of the FHA chapter. The program which followed included a style show, a skit on manners, and some special contest numbers were played.

In a talk given by Miss Pruden, she commended the chapter on its good work and urged the girls to attend the workshop at Kearney in May.

The Creighton chapter served a lunch of ice cream and cake which was baked by the freshman class.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mattern went to Creighton Sunday to visit his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mattern.
