

Chorus, Orchestra Win Acclaim

Miss Viola Haynes was dramatic director; Don Kellner, lighting and stage manager. Orchestra personnel included: Violin—John Schwartz of Atkinson, Mrs. D. E. Nelson, Mrs. John Watson, Willis Johnson of Spencer, Cathmar D. Ratcliff of Niobrara.

Flute—William Wurtz of Ainsworth, Helen Hartly.
Clarinet—Carolyn Hiatt, John Bielek of Chambers.
Alto saxophone—Ellen Corle.
Tenor saxophone—Paul Shelhamer.
French horn—Kathryn Ann Golden.
Trumpet—Duane Booth, Paul Cooper of Ewing.
Trombone—Elizabeth Schaffer, James Rodman.
Piano—Carolyn Watson of Inman.
Bassoon—Dorothy Snyder of Ainsworth.

The Civic chorus under the baton of Mr. Bastian sang five selections at the outset of the program, including "Adornus Te" by Palestrina; "Go Not Far From Me, O God" by Zingarelli; "Got to Dark Gethsemane" by Noble, all sacred, and two novelty folk numbers, "The Arkansas Traveler" and "The Dear Old Woman."
The well-balanced chorus offered a pleasing and entertaining prelude to the opera.

Go to California—
ATKINSON—Mrs. A. G. Miller and son, Patrick L. Miller, left for Santa Monica, Calif., to visit her son and Patrick's brother, Dr. John A. Miller, and family. Enroute they will visit relatives and friends in Denver, Colo., Colorado Springs, Colo., and Phoenix, Ariz. Corporal Miller has just recently returned home from service in Korea with the 19th infantry, 24th division.

Merri-Myx Meets—
The Merry-Myx club members were entertained at a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. G. Kruse. The afternoon was spent playing cards. The high score was won by Mrs. Kruse and the guest high by Mrs. Ted McElhaney.

Beverly Boelter Weds Norman Rokahr

VENUS—Seven-branch candelabra and baskets of salmon colored gladioluses decorated St. Paul's Lutheran church at Venus for the wedding Sunday afternoon, May 3, of Miss Beverly Boelter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Boelter of Creighton, and Norman C. Rokahr. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Rokahr, sr., of Venus. Rev. William Roth officiated with the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Keith Roll of Norfolk sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Frank Pierce of Walnut.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of nylon illusion and lace over white taffeta. The fitted lace bodice buttoned down the back and was fashioned with an illusion yoke that gave an off-the-shoulder effect. Fitted lace sleeves tapered to points over her wrists. The full-gathered taffeta skirt, topped with an illusion over-skirt, ended in a cathedral train. The bride's double illusion fingertip veil was held in place with a half-hat of satin and corded tulle. She carried a bouquet of baby orchids.
Mrs. Bernard Montgomery of Venus, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore an American beauty rose gown of lace and net over taffeta. The bouffant skirt was topped with a close-fitting lace bodice and a lace shoulder jacket.

Mrs. Max Le Masters of Venus, another sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a scenic blue gown designed like that of the matron-of-honor. Both attendants carried arm bouquets of white feathered carnations.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Boelter chose a black suit-dress with black accessories. Mrs. Rokahr wore a navy blue suit-dress with navy accessories and each wore a white feathered carnation corsage.

Wearing a floor-length gown of yellow net over taffeta with a matching lace jacket was Gloria Montgomery, flower girl. Everett Rokahr was ringbearer. Misses Joyce Miller and Clarence Johnson, cousins of the bride, lighted the tapers.

Fritz Rokahr, jr., served his brother as bestman. Arne Pierce was groomsmen and ushers were Gary Groeling and Dean Pierce of Walnut.
About 100 guests attended the reception held after the ceremony in the church parlors. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Francis Boelter, Mrs. Richard Miller, Misses Glenda and Renita Mott, Eileen and Karen Miller and Jo Ann Boelter.
For a wedding trip the bride selected a navy crepe afternoon dress matched with blue and white accessories. The couple will live on a farm near Venus.
The bride was graduated from O'Neill high school and has been employed by the Norfolk Daily News. The bridegroom is a Creighton high school graduate and has spent four years in the navy with active duty in Korea.
Guests attended the wedding from Omaha, O'Neill, Ewing, Fairbury, Verdigris, Norfolk, Creighton and Walnut.
