ATKINSON — St. Joseph's Catholic church was the scene Monday, June 1, of the wedding of Miss JoAnn Judge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Judge of Atkinson, and Nelson Blohm, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blohm of Hannibal, Mo. Rev. John McNally of Omaha officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta gown, featuring a pleated nylon net haltered bodice and matching jacket. A panel of nylon net decorated the front of a full skirt. Her double illusion fingertip veil was held in place by a lace crown trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white lilies and a white prayer book, also a mother of pear rosary, a gift of the bridegroom.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Janet Judge of Chicago, Ill., sister of the bride, wore a lavender gown, identical to that of the bride and a matching picture hat. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bridegroom was attended by James Judge, brother of the bride. Both wore dark suits and carnation boutonnières.

Breakfast was served for the bridal party at the home of Mrs. Mary E. James.

A 1 o'clock dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. An afternoon reception from 2 until 4 o'clock was held for friends and relatives.

Mrs. Blohm is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school of Atkinson and St. Francis school of nursing of Evanston, Ill. Mr. Blohm, recently discharged from the navy, will continue school at the University of Missouri this fall.

After a short wedding trip to southern Missouri the couple will make their home at 1115 Center street, Hannibal, Mo.
