(Continued from page 1) Kenneth, 12, and Barbara, 10. Mrs. Jack Witte, another Madsen daughter. Mrs. Witte's three children, Pattie, 8, Thelma, 12, and Gary, 10. The grief-stricken Mr. Witte was at the funeral. Rev. John Sinar, Methodist pastor, officiated. Dying of injuries in the same storm was Lester Hubbard, 62. Two other Madsen daughters, Dorothy and Florence, were unable to attend the reunion, but were called back to Nebraska by the tragedy. Leo Seger, Atkinson mortician who was spending the weekend in Broken Bow, was asked to go to the scene of the tragedy about an hour after it happened by the Custer county sheriff. Mr. Seger described the scene as "very grim."

O'Neill Saddle Club in Stuart Rodeo

STUART—The O'Neill Saddle club will be one of the feature attractions at the Stuart rodeo July 4-5. The club will appear in the parade and grand entry of the July 4 afternoon show, and also will give a 15-minute performance during the show. The 1953 annual rodeo will again have as its stock contractor, George Sticha of Seneca. In his few years in the rodeo business, Mr. Sticha has gathered one of the most outstanding strings of stock in the business today. He has become famous for his string of bucking bulls which include such famous bulls as Friday, Tiny Tim, General, Old Fitzgerald and many others. The Triple L Bar brand has become known throughout the midwest and the show is often called the Triple L Bar rodeo. The Triple L Bar opened their season at Guymon, Okla., this year at their famous pioneer day celebration, and will produce shows in South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico this summer.

Saddle Clubbers to Ride Friday

O'Neill Saddle clubbers will ride Friday at 7:30 p.m., at the Everet Miner ranch. Reservations and plans will be made for the club's participation in the state fair. Members are to bring sandwiches to Miners. Coffee and doughnuts will be served by the club.

Mrs. Kenneth Ferec and children of Arlington, Va., arrived Wednesday, June 3, for a two months vacation with Mrs. Ferec's father, Dr. H. L. Bennett, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Streeter and niece, Patricia McKenzie, spent Sunday in Brunswick visiting relatives.

O'Neill Tops Terminal Markets

● We have been running between twenty-five cents and a dollar over the terminal market quotations on good West coast butcher hogs. Last week the O'Neill market had an excellent sale on 900-pound cattle and some short yearlings. This is a different story compared to what's been happening in some of the other markets.

● Today (Thursday) at the hog sale, the O'Neill Livestock Market will have two registered milking Shorthorn bulls besides the usual run of yearlings and butcher cattle.

● Whether you wish to buy or sell, be at O'Neill today for the regular Thursday sale at the O'Neill Livestock Market.

Duane K. Miller Takes Bride

(Photo at left) CHAMBERS—Miss Enola Mae Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Richards of Chadron, became the bride of Duane K. Miller of Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Miller of Neligh, at a double-ring ceremony, Sunday, June 7, at 2:30 o'clock in the Methodist church, Chambers. Rev. L. R. Hansberry officiated at the ceremony. Gaylen Cleveland of Neligh sang, "I Love You Truly", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer". He was accompanied by Miss Bonnie Miller of Fremont, sister of the bridegroom. The church was decorated with baskets of orchid color gladioli. The bride given in marriage by her father chose a gown of white satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a lace yoke trimmed in seed pearls, long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. The full skirt ended in a long train. Her fingertip veil of silk net was held by a half hair of satin. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and stephanitis in white mistle and piquet streamers centered with a purple orchid corsage. The maid-of-honor, Miss Beverly R. Miller of Fremont, sister of the bridegroom, wore a gown of orchid satin, fashioned as the bride's gown. Her head dress was of orchid color roses and green ribbon. She carried a colonial bouquet of purple reed daisies with yellow satin streamers. Linda Lee Victor of Plainview, neice of the bridegroom, wore a gown of orchid satin, fashioned as the bride's gown. She carried a small bouquet like the maid-of-honor's. The bridegroom was attended by Norman Anderson of Bloomfield, Ushers were Carlyle Victor of Plainview and Gerald Richards of Chadron. They were also candlelighters and laid the white carpet for the bridal party. A reception for 85 guests was held in the church parlor. The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and orchid and green satin streamers trimmed each corner of the table. Mrs. Carlyle Victor of Plainview cut the cake. Mrs. Norman Anderson of Bloomfield poured, and Miss Viola Dunbar of Almeria served. All wore corsages of white carnations. Miss Rosa Drake of Comstock was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Cody high school and has taught a rural school the last year. O'Neill Miller is a graduate of Neligh high school and is the owner of Miller's grocery at Chambers. The mother of the bride wore a navy blue sheer dress with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue nylon dress with pink accessories. Both wore deep pink nose corsages. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dunbar of Almeria, grandparents of the bride. Others attended from Almeria, Comstock, Chadron, Valentine, Fremont, O'Neill, Norfolk, Neligh, Elgin, Royal, Plainview, Lincoln and Bloomfield.

Sick & Injured

LYNCH—Rosemary Heiser recently underwent a tonsillectomy at the Neligh hospital. Mrs. Emma Thiessen of Sunshine Bottom submitted to major surgery at the Lynch hospital and is "getting along well." James Maly is in the Lynch hospital because of injuries received when his team ran away Tuesday, June 21. The team was hitched to a wagon with a cultivator hooked onto the wagon. Mr. Maly attempted to jump from the wagon and then remembers nothing for some time. It is believed the cultivator struck him and perhaps drug him for some distance. He is suffering from severe bruises and cuts and possible broken ribs. Mrs. Pete Gengler is "not so good" at her home here.

O'NEILL—Merwin Johnson is in the Veterans hospital, Grand Island, receiving treatment for an infected toe. His wife is staying with Mrs. Elizabeth Howard. George Hammond, "Voice of the Frontier" radio announcer, was confined to his home four days last week because of tonsillitis. Mrs. Mildred Honke's condition is "good" in St. Anthony's hospital. J. J. Berigan's condition is "good" in St. Joseph's hospital, Omaha, where he has been a surgical patient four weeks. Mrs. Berigan is near him. Mr. Berigan, suffering a liver infection, is "up and around" each day. Mayor J. E. Davis returned last week from Rochester, Minn., where he had been about 12 days.

EMMET—Mrs. Alex McConnell spent a few days at Atkinson recently receiving treatment for her gastric ailment. She is now home and is "much improved." Sgt. First Class Harold Winkler, who has been in the Offutt air base hospital of Omaha, returned home Friday to spend the weekend. He left for Camp Carson, Colo., Monday, where he will
