There'll be between 250 and 350 cattle on the O'Neill market today (Thursday)-a predicted light run. The market is definitely down although slaughter steers, yearlings and heifers were selling steady Monday at Omaha. Today's offering will include some good short yearling steers and heifers, several nice consignments of calves, the usual run of butcher cattle.

• There'll be around 250 feeder pigs at today's market.
