4-H Clubbers Plan July 5 Outing

The Elkhorn Valley 4-H club held a safety first meeting at the William Grothe home Monday, June 22. Two new members joined the group—Leo Tunender and Darold Skopec.

The roll call was answered with "How We Can Prevent Accidents," after which a round table discussion was conducted with members telling all the dangerous things they saw around the farm.

A motion was made and seconded to postpone burning the dumps until fall as they are covered with weeds. A trip to the county supervisors resulted in condemnation of the town dumps and the village now has to purchase a site for the dump. The local dumps are now on the county roads.

Plans were made to go to Pickstown, S.D., as a 4-H tour on Sunday, July 5. The entire club with their families will meet at the Grant Peacock home Sunday at 9 a.m., planning to leave by 9:30. A picnic lunch will be eaten at Lake Andes, S.D.—By Fred Grothe, reporter.
