Bartak-Sunderman Rites at Ewing

EWING — Miss Shirley Ann Bartak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph W. Bartak, became the bride of Airman Richard J. Sunderman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sunderman of Humphrey, in a double-ring ceremony Monday evening at the United Presbyterian church in Ewing. Rev. W. J. Bomer officiated at the 7 o'clock candle-light service before an altar banked with flowers. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a chantilly lace and nylon gown made over a satin foundation. The lace bodice featured an illusion yoke and long pointed sleeves. The full tulle skirt ended in a cathedral train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held in place by a small tulle hat. She carried a red rose and white stephanotis bouquet on a white Bible, which was a gift from the bridegroom. Red rosebuds on white ribbon streamers completed the arrangement.

Miss Janice Bartak, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of Nile green lace and net and carried a colonial bouquet of green daisies. The bridesmaids, Miss Elaine Peterson of Albion and Mrs. Donald Sunderman of Humphrey, wore identical gowns styled similar to that of the maid-of-honor, in yellow and lavender. They carried matching bouquets of daisies.

Groomsmen were Eugene Sunderman, brother, and Vernon Meisinger, friend of the bridegroom. Ushers were Harold Schmidt of Madison and Elvin Bartak of Greeley.

The bride's mother chose a two-piece ecru lace dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of green carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue gown with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Lighting the tapers were the Misses Doralea and Jeannice Rasmussen of Norfolk. Miss Marta Mignery of Bartlett sang "I Love Thee," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by her sister, Maida. Both girls are friends of the bride.

Mrs. Eugene Sunderman was in charge of the guest book and the Misses Jackie Parker and Marion Sunderman were in charge of the gifts.

After the ceremony, a reception for about 200 guests was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Casper Rasmussen of Norfolk baked the four-tier wedding cake which was served by Mrs. Harold Schmidt, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Ed Rethwisch, aunt of the bride, and Miss Darlene Pavlis, cousin, poured. The Misses Judy Bartak, Sylvia Loseke, Patsy Barker, Wilma Jean Tagei, Barbara Sturek and Shirley Plugge served. The ladies of the United Presbyterian Missionary society managed the kitchen.

Mrs. Sunderman chose for her going-away costume a white linen suit with red accessories and a red rose corsage.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will live at Brunswick, Ga., where the bridegroom is stationed.
