Richard Fees Takes Bride

CHAMBERS — Miss Merriel Mickelsen of San Francisco, Calif., became the bride of Richard Fees of Chambers at a quiet wedding Saturday, July 18, at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Chambers.

The pastor, Rev. C. D. Ankney, performed the ceremony. Only the immediate family and a friend, Jack Shoop of Los Angeles, Calif., were present. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farrier of Los Angeles, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

The bride appeared in a navy blue linen ensemble. She wore a white rose corsage. Mrs. Farrier wore a pink street-length dress. Both used white accessories. Mrs. Myrtle Fees, mother of the bridegroom, chose navy blue for the occasion.

Both the bridegroom and his attendant, Robert Farrier, wore tan suits.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mickelsen of St. Paul, Minn. She attended the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis for one year. The past year she has been employed at the U.S. Electric Motors in Los Angeles.

Mr. Fees is a graduate of the Chambers high school. He has a general repair business in Chambers. They took a short trip to Grand Island, Bradshaw and Lincoln where they visited relatives. They will make their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Padnos and daughter, Patricia, of Lake Andes, S.D., were Thursday and Friday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Don Petersen. Mrs. Petersen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Padnos.

Dailey - Rossman Nuptials Read

Miss Betty Louise Dailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dailey of O'Neill, became the bride of LeRoy Rossman, son of Mrs. Gertrude Rossman of Atkinson, at a double-ring ceremony Sunday afternoon in the Methodist church here. Rev. Wallace B. Smith officiated at the 2 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a monastery white gown fashioned of nylon tulle and chantilly flounce lace. A sculptured tulle bodice emphasized an off-the-shoulder effect with a wide lace flounce applied, bertha style, to a tulle yoke. Long fitted sleeves formed bridal points over the wrist. The bouffant tulle skirt was joined to the waistline with a peplum of the lace which continued down either side, front and back, forming a panel which ran the entire border of the chapel train. A crown of pearls held her fingertip veil of nylon tulle and chantilly flounce lace. The bridal bouquet was of white and orchid carnations.

Miss Lila Dailey, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a floor-length gown of lavender nylon tulle over satin. White daisies and yellow carnations formed her bouquet.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, William Rossman. They wore dark blue business suits. The ushers were Rex Stowell and Arvid Erb.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue dress with white accessories. Each had a white carnation corsage.

Miss Elaine Harshfield, accompanied by Miss Onie McClurg, both of Atkinson, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always."

Miss Shirley Britnell was in charge of the guest book. The Misses Beverly Norman, Mary Graham and Patty Carson were in charge of the gifts.

After the ceremony a reception for 120 guests was held at the Town House. The four-tier wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut by Mrs. Donald Clyde, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Charles Lawrence poured.

For her going-away costume Mrs. Rossman chose a nylon dress with lavender flowers on white, with white accessories.

Mrs. Rossman is a graduate of the O'Neill public school with the 1951 class. Mr. Rossman is a graduate of the Atkinson public school and is now with the navy, stationed at San Francisco, Calif., where the young couple will make their home after a two weeks honeymoon in the Southwestern states.
