

Coon Hunting Enthusiast Visits

ROCK FALLS—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Guy and three sons of Cincinnati, O., were guests Monday afternoon and evening at Floyd Johnson's.

Mr. Guy is an enthusiastic coon hunter and has a registered red-bone coonhound that he purchased from Floyd some time ago.

Several hunters went out with Mr. Guy Monday evening and succeeded in reducing the coon population by two.

Said one observer: "This will aid the chickens and sweet corn a lot."

Letter to Editor

963 Farber Court
Scranton 10, Pa.

To the Editor:

Thanks a million for a copy of The Frontier. You covered the helicopter crash very thoroughly and as a former editor I want to compliment you on your coverage.

Our son's death was a terrific shock to us and The Frontier seemed to somewhat alleviate our minds. He wanted so much to serve 20 years in the air force then enter government service. Bob was the second of our oldest sons to die for his country. His brother having served with the 11th airborne paratroops, and taken everything MacArthur had thrown at him from New Guinea, Leyte, Manila, Okinawa and Japan, came home to die of a disease incurred in New Guinea. Six of our children have seen active service and the seventh was a secretary for the British council in New York during the war. And I am totally disabled from W.W.I. So our family has served.

I am enclosing two dollars for which I do wish you would send us a picture of our son and Captain Johnson and the children and any other pictures you may have of the wreck. We will prize them so highly, along with another copy of the August 6th issue of The Frontier. You had a splendid editorial.

Bob was an instructor in a Boy Scout troop in South Boston and loved kiddies. Some weeks ago he was written up in an air force paper, two columns, for his work among Scouts and boys.

Again, we can't thank you enough for the copy of The Frontier. It just filled a great vacancy. Bob would not have come to O'Neill if Doctor Loeser, his personal friend, had not called him long distance and requested him to come West for the maneuvers. And they died together.

Your broken-hearted friend,
WILLIAM A. IDE

Preopening Day to Be August 28

Preopening day for 101st county rural school teachers will be held Friday, August 28, at the O'Neill public school.

Beginning teachers will meet at 8 o'clock and the whole group at 1 o'clock.

There will be speakers for the afternoon meeting.

In Capping Rite
Miss Joellyn Backhaus, (above), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Backhaus of the Chambers community, recently received her cap at a capping service at the St. Francis school of nursing, Grand Island. She graduated from O'Neill high school in 1951.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Cratty returned home Monday from a trip to Canada.

Zoe Ann Huffman visited her grandmother in Elgin last week. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Harpster and the Napier families attended a dinner at the Town House in O'Neill last Thursday evening in honor of Mr. Wib Napier's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Tomjack and Gene attended the Burwell rodeo last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sehi visited Sunday at the Carl Kallhoff home near Raville. They reported the crops "look fine" down there.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Tomjack and son returned to their home in Hastings on Sunday after spending two weeks' vacation traveling and visiting relatives here.

Signed to replace Stone is William Cook of Cody, Wyo., formerly ag teacher in the Atkinson school system.

Miss Theresa Ernst of O'Neill has been engaged to teach the fifth grade—the only change in the grade school faculty. Miss Ernst has been teaching a rural school north of O'Neill.

Miss Mildred McNutt of Avoca, Wisc., is the new home economics teacher. She taught last year at Wymore. She replaces Mrs. Marian Cavanaugh, who is moving to Iowa. Miss McNutt is a graduate of the Plattville (Wisc.) State Teachers college, 1950.

Other new teachers, although their signing had been announced previously, include:

Mrs. Patricia French of Page, vocal music. Mrs. French last term taught at Wahoo. She is a graduate of the University of Nebraska.

Miss Esther Kinnier of Sioux City, commercial. Miss Kinnier formerly taught in the O'Neill system and returns after a two year's absence.

Weekly MARKET REPORT of the Atkinson Livestock Market

ATKINSON, NEBR.

Tuesday, August 18th Auction: Cattle Receipts 550 head. Not enough cattle to include to test the market. Offering consisted largely of cows and smaller consignments of stockers and feeders with quality mostly common to just good. The cow market was 50 lower from last week with canners and cutters selling from 8.00 to 10.00 while better beef cows brought on up to 12.00 a hundred. Small packages of yearling steers sold from 14.00 to 17.00 with heifers going from 13.00 to 15.00 a hundred. Choice cattle quotable at 1.50 to 2.00 above these figures.

Inquiry from eastern feeders is showing market improvement, and with crop prospects good, demand at current prices undoubtedly will be sufficient to absorb increased offering from now on.

Auction every Tuesday until mid-Sept. Then every Monday and Tuesday.
