NEW MANAGEMENT

EWING LIVESTOCK MARKET

Ewing, Nebr.

MONDAY, AUG. 31

Starting 1 P.M.

HOGS . . .

We will have three major packer-buyers and two buyers with Coast orders to assure you the keenest competition and highest prices for your fat hogs and sows. There are several local inquiries for feeder shoats and pigs.

CATTLE . . .

All cattle will be sold in the order in which they are listed or received. This will be your market and selling on consignment basis only. For this sale—our first under new management—we are expecting a nice offering with plenty of buyers on hand. We have contacted several Eastern Nebraska and Iowa buyers and they have promised to be here.

If you have cattle to sell, drop us a line and we will come and look at them—as we are interested in getting for you the most dollars possible. With the general rains in the Eastern territory, this market promises to hit the top prices. Fat cows and anything with some fat on it will be in very good demand as there will be two major packer and several local butcher buyers on hand. Could use some cornfed cattle and sell them to a nice advantage.

HORSES . . .

All classes of horses are in good demand. This definitely will be the place to sell your horses.
