Evelyn A. Lindberg Weds in Pasadena

Miss Evelyn Arlene Lindberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Lindberg of O'Neill, and

Lloyd J. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Weber of Atlanta, Ga., were married Saturday, August 15, in First Methodist church chapel in Pasadena, Calif. Dr. Claude E. Smith, associate pastor, officiated at the 5 p.m. ceremony which was followed by a reception in the church cloister. One hundred fifty guests attended.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Max E. Wilkins of Palo Alto, Calif., the bride was attended by Mrs. Dalen Horning as matron-of-honor. Her bridesmaids were Misses Marilyn Hall of Monrovia, Calif., and Ena Lou McLaren.

Dalen Horning was bestman. David Horning and Warren Bruce of Glendale, Calif., ushered.

The bride chose a Cahill gown of white tulle over taffeta, made waltz-length and scattered with lace motifs applied on the bodice and down the front of the skirt. A close-fitting madcap headdress of matching lace held the double veil of bridal illusion which fell to her waist. She carried a cascade of bouvardia and carnations centered with a white orchid.

Iridescent gowns were worn by the attendants, Mrs. Horning in peacock, the bridesmaids in flame. A stole attached to the strapless bodice detailed the ballet-length dresses, and each girl wore a matching half-hat. Their flowers were gladiolus in harmonizing tones.

Mr. Wilkins was accompanied here by Mrs. Wilkins and their daughter, Nancy, who were among the out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Weber graduated from O'Neill high school in 1947. She was employed at the Ben Franklin store until 1950, when she moved to Pasadena, where she attended Pacific college. Later she was employed at an aircraft factory.

Mr. Weber is a University of Illinois graduate in architectural design.

The couple is at Lake Tahoe on their honeymoon and will be at home at 493 E. Del Mar after September 1.
