EWING MARKET REPORT

This week our cattle ran very much to the plain side. However, we found a new home for them at steady prices. We can sell some loads of good yearlings and two-year-olds to a nice advantage.

Next week we will have 30 head of top Angus cows and heifers. These are not culls. They are the heart out of 100 head and the best that grow in the sandhills; also 15 head of top yearling fat heifers, weighing 600 pounds.

Let us try your next consignment. You furnish the stock, we furnish the buyers. List your calves now for our big special calf sale Monday, October 5.

Weekly
MARKET REPORT
of the
Atkinson Livestock Market
ATKINSON, NEBR.
Tuesday, Sept. 8, Auction—Cattle receipts 625 head. Buyer activity was the best in several weeks, resulting in advances of 50 cents to 1.00 a hundred on all classes. Several carloads of just good yearling Hereford steers sold at 16.25 and 16.35 a hundred. Other medium to good steers and smaller lots cleared at 12.75 to 16.00. No straight carloads of heifers were offered, but prices generally were a dollar up from last week.
Cows averaged fully 50 cents up with canners and cutters at 7.50 to 9.00 and beef cows on up to 10.65 a hundred. Bulls at 10.50 to 12.00.
Early listings indicate that receipts will expand rapidly from now on, but with nearly all bearish factors already discounted, we anticipate sufficient buying power to develop to impart some strength to all classes of stockers and feeders.
Next Auction — Tuesday, September 15th, starting at 12:30 Noon.
