School Lunchbox Tips Offered

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Our old friends—the bees—make wonderful pickles. But have you tried serving them with an orange flavor? If you haven't, you're in for a treat.

Start with 2 1/2 cups sliced raw bees. Slice them into a buttered casserole. Pour on one cup orange juice, one tablespoon butter, one teaspoon salt and a teaspoon grated orange rind. Cover and bake in moderate oven of about 350 F. for an hour. This will serve six.

Some folks think that there is nothing better than orange rolls. They are pretty luscious, and that's the honest truth. If you want to see for yourself, here's how to make them.

ORANGE ROLLS
Two yeast cakes (or two packages quick cranked yeast), 1/4 cup lukewarm water, one egg (well beaten), six tablespoons melted shortening, two teaspoons salt, 1/2 cup sugar, 3/4 cup orange juice, one teaspoon grated orange peel, about four cups sifted flour.

Combine the ingredients in the order given and beat until smooth, stirring in enough flour to make a soft dough. Turn onto floured board, knead until smooth and elastic. Place in a greased bowl, brush with melted shortening. Cover, let rise in warm place until double in size. Knead again.

Shape into rolls. Let rise until double in size and bake in 400 F. oven about 20 minutes.

This dough can be stored in the refrigerator. After first rising, knead the dough again, store in a greased and covered bowl in refrigerator. Two hours before baking time take out and use as much dough as needed. Let rise in warm, greased bowl until it is almost double. Cover and let rise until double in size. Bake as directed above.

'Rural Mother' Wins Subscription—
Dear Blanche:

For those mothers who are looking for something new in the line of sandwiches, they might like to try gingerbread ribbon sandwiches to send for their children's school lunch.

I spread two long slices of white bread with creamed butter on one side and one long slice of gingerbread with creamed butter on both sides. Put together with gingerbread in the center. Make a second sandwich loaf, alternating gingerbread with white bread. Wrap in waxed paper, cover with damp cloth and put in cool place. Cut in 1/2-inch slices and serve. Cream or cottage cheese with nuts or dates may also be used for filling.

I like to use molasses in apple sauce cake. It makes such a moist, flavorful cake. The kids like it, too.

APPLE SAUCE SPICE CAKE
One-third cup shortening, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup molasses (or dark syrup), two cups flour, three teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/4 teaspoon cloves, 1/3 teaspoon soda, one cup apple sauce, 1/2 cup raisins.

Cream shortening, add sugar slowly, beating in well. Add well beaten eggs and blend thoroughly. Add molasses. Sift dry ingredients and add alternately with apple sauce. Add raisins. Bake in moderate oven of 350 F. for about an hour. Makes one nine-inch layer. Top with sea foam frosting.

SEA FOAM FROSTING
Two egg whites (unbeaten), 3/4 cup white sugar, 3/4 cup brown sugar, dash of salt, five tablespoons of water, one teaspoon vanilla.

Combine egg whites, sugars, salt and water. Cook in top of double boiler over hot water, beating with rotary egg beater until mixture is thick enough to stand in peaks. Cooking will require seven to eight minutes. Take from fire, add flavoring. Beat until thick enough to spread.

Did you ever try peppermint whipped cream as a topping for gingerbread? I make it by whipping one cup of heavy cream with two tablespoons powdered sugar, and four sticks crushed peppermint candy. It is so good.
