Injuries Plague Cards in Loss

Rev. L. A. Portrey's Sacred Heart academy six-manned team from Greeley edged the valiant St. Mary's academy Cardinals, 21-18, under the lights in Carney park here Friday night. Not only was it a heart-breaker for the Cards in their home debut for the season, but the injury hex literally cleared the bench for Coach Bob Berigan.

Three Cards were hurt in three successive plays and in the final stanza Coach Berigan seriously considered using the water boy—his only companion on the bench.

The Cards scored first when Ray Donohoe intercepted a Green Tide pass and ran to Greeley's 25, having covered 49 yards. On the second play, George Tomlinson gathered in a pass in the end zone. The PAT try was blocked.

The Greeley Irish roared back with Curran carrying about 25 yards to score. The conversion was good and Sacred Heart led 7-6.

Greeley threatened again but the Cards held on their own 20 when the visitors had a fourth down with only one yard to go. On the next play, Donohoe lateraled wide to St. Mary's Dick Graham, a scat, who ran 60 yards to score. The PAT try was futile but St. Mary's led 12-7.

Later, Greeley was forced to punt and Donohoe, taking the ball on his own 30, covered 50 yards to score SMA's third—and final—TD. Again the conversion failed.

Chahill registered a touchdown for the Shamrocks and the half ended, 18-14, the visitors having scored both PAT's.

It was a costly first-half lead

Triple Reverse Nets Winning TD

Elgin Wins Thriller from Chambers

CHAMBERS—The Elgin high Eagles defeated the Chambers high Coyotes, 19-12, on a wind-swept Chambers gridiron Friday afternoon.

Gene Adams of Chambers scooted around his own left end for 40 yards to register the first touchdown of the game.

Gary Schall took a 20-yard pass from Gary Johnson and rambled 12 yards to pay dirt for Elgin's first marker. Bill Fleming converted on a running play, giving the Eagles a 7-6 first quarter margin.

Ron Haake, Chambers right half, circled his own right end for 20 yards to give the Coyotes their second TD. Elgin retaliated when Gary Schall, on a reverse, crashed over from the Chambers 15. Elgin led 13-12 at intermission.

The third quarter was a see-saw affair with wind and dust the chief grievance for both teams.

In the final stanza, with only four minutes remaining, Elgin quarterback Gary Johnson scored from the Chambers 19 on a nifty triple reverse.

Jim Tangeman, Chambers quarter, failed to get into the scoring column but played a whale of a game. Johnson and Bobby Anderson were big guns for Elgin.

A play-by-play description was broadcast by WIAG (790 k.c.) with Glen Hixson and Jerry Clark at the mike. The broadcast was sponsored by Elgin merchants. It was the first remote control radio broadcast ever to originate from the south-Holt county town of Chambers.

O'Neill Wallops Creighton, 34-0

Booth Runs Wild for Eagles

The O'Neill Eagles roared the length and breadth of the Creighton Maroons' playground Friday night and registered a 34-0 victory. The Blues outdowned their foes, 18-3, and O'Neill was obliged to kick out only once, Creighton five times.

It was an O'Neill show from start-to-finish—the Blues showing more heart, experience and savvy in every department.

O'Neill's first touchdown resulted when Duane Booth ran 50 yards off-tackle in the first quarter. Harold Dexter scored from 15 yards out for O'Neill's second TD in the same stanza.

Eddie Gatz hit pay dirt after being sprung off-tackle and traveling 60 yards. This was in the second stanza.

Dexter manufactured the fourth TD in the third, scoring from 10 yards out, and Big Booth plunged from the 2 to end the touchdown marathon. Booth also kicked four out of five extra points.

Best offensively for the Blues were Booth, Dexter, Warren Seeger, Larry Chace and Gatz. Best on defense were Dewayne DeVal, Lyle Davis, Russell Miner and Duane Alton.

Chace did a brilliant job of running back the opening kickoff for a TD but the play was nullified because the officials ruled he stepped out of bounds.

The Blues go to Ainsworth Friday night. Both Ainsworth and O'Neill have been defeated by Basset.

600 Homecoming Invitations Out

STUART—The Stuart Broncos corralled the Wood Lake Longhorns by a score of 14-6 last Thursday with an eight-man grid affair on the Stuart field.

The Longhorns scored a touchdown in the first quarter and held the Broncos scoreless until the third quarters when the Broncos started backing. Paxton and D. Brewster each made a touchdown on pass plays.

The extra point was made after each touchdown to make the final score 14-6.

South of Stuart News

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murphy and son, Henry, and daughter, Rita Ann, and Calvin Coolidge of Atkinson attended the Ak-Sar-Ben rodeo and show Saturday at Omaha. Their daughter, Sophie, sponsored by the Stuart American Legion, reigned as "Queen for a Day", Saturday. Miss Murphy was presented a compact with her name engraved on it and a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums from the Ak-Sar-Ben officials.

Miss Murphy is a student nurse at the St. Joseph school of nursing in Omaha.

November 10 Finance Date for Scouting

Forty-five Scouters from the communities of Ewing, Page, O'Neill, Chambers, Spencer, Atkinson, Stuart, Bassett, Long Pine, Ainsworth, Springview, Valentine, Wood Lake, Kligore and Merriman participated in an area-wide meeting to plan the November 10 finance campaign.

The session was held Tuesday evening at the O'Neill Country club.

Money is to be raised throughout Nebraska on November 10 for the ensuing year, enabling the three Nebraska councils to plan and spend only actual money raised. George Hammond of O'Neill and Bill Vanderheiden of Valentine, the two district finance chairmen in this area, passed on information and material received when all district finance chairmen in Nebraska met with Gov. Robert Crosby, state finance chairman, on September 19.

Varro Rhodes of Omaha, Covered Wagon council president, presided at the O'Neill meeting. Towns represented included Atkinson, Chambers, Spencer, Springview, Ainsworth, Ewing, Valentine, Bassett, Butte, Page, Stuart, Kligore, Merriman and Long Pine.

serve the pony, the judges said. "It will mean lots of additional work," said Mrs. Socha, "but a pony will be a wonderful pet for them."

Vern Whitaker of Chambers brought the pony to O'Neill in his truck.

The Elkhorn Valley Hay Dealers' association, in session Tuesday morning, decided to supply the Socha children with a year's supply of hay for their new pony. Guy Cole of Emmet is association president.

"It's all a dream-come-true for the children," explained the mother. "They'll have to grow up with the pony."

The family resides on a 3 1/2-acre tract four blocks south of the New Deal oil station and one block west. There is a small barn on the place.
