

Muny Band Going to Wayne Festival

The 60-piece combined bands of the O'Neill public school and St. Mary's academy will take part in the homecoming activities at Wayne State Teachers college on Saturday, October 10.

The activities will include a parade from downtown Wayne to the college campus at 10:30 a.m., 23 bands will take part. The O'Neill bands will travel in two chartered busses through the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce, Simonson post 93 of the American Legion, the O'Neill Saddle club and the band activity fund. The parade will be broadcast.

To Wed Soon

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doty of O'Neill announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois Jean Doty, to Lynn Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shelly Moore of Long Pine. Marriage is planned in the near future.

Opera Being Staged in Auditorium Here

The opera, "The Telephone", by Menotti will be performed at the O'Neill public school this morning (Thursday).

"The Telephone" was originally written for production by the ballet society and was first presented by the organization with Mr. Menotti's "The Medium" at the Heckscher theater, New York City, February, 1947. In May of that year it was performed on Broadway. Through the courtesy of G. Shirmer, Inc., the royalty fee of $300 has been waived for this free school performance.

The leading roles are carried by Mrs. Lane Griffin of Atkinson, soprano, and John Schwartz of Atkinson and is under the dramatic direction of Harold Hutchinson, superintendent of Atkinson schools.

Piano accompaniment is by Charles B. Houser of O'Neill. The opera was given at the Atkinson public school on Wednesday morning.

Teachers Hold Planning Meeting

Miss Rosalie Farley from the University of Nebraska was the speaker for the 12 group chairmen of the Holt county rural teachers and their assistants on Wednesday afternoon, September 30, in the assembly room of the courthouse. This was also a planning meeting for the demonstration teaching which each chairman will do in her home school some afternoon October 15 to 23.

Miss Alice French, county superintendent, entertained the group at the close. Refreshments of cup cakes, coffee, mints and nuts were served.

Regular Session—The Catholic Daughters of America held a regular business meeting Monday evening at the Knights of Columbus hall. Following the meeting, pitch was played with Mrs. Nora Mullen winning high, Mrs. J. W. Hickey, low, and Mrs. John Pribil the door prize. Lunch was served by the committee.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Donohoe were Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Clark and son of Grand Island.

Holt Entries Win 4 Blues at 'AK'

14 Baby Beeves in Omaha Contest

Holt county 4-H club boys and girls fared well at Ak-Sar-Ben livestock show in Omaha, which is the largest 4-H baby beef show in the world. Fourteen head of baby beeves from Holt were shown. They received four blue ribbons, seven red ribbons and three white ribbons. There were from 60 to 75 calves competing in each class.

Individuals showing calves were:

Rose Mary Corkle of O'Neill, Fancy Ropers, blue award, Angus steer; Ellen Corkle of O'Neill, Fancy Ropers, blue award, Angus steer; Dale Woods of Ewing, Martha club, blue award, Hereford heifer; Dale Woods of Ewing, Martha club, blue award, Hereford steer; Lanny LaRue of Ewing, Martha club, red award, Angus heifer; Lanny LaRue of Ewing, Martha club, red award, Angus steer; Donald "Pete" Hoffman of Chambers, Martha club, red award, Hereford steer; Robert and Roberta Klabenes of Ewing, Martha club, red award, Hereford steer; Robert and Roberta Klabenes of Ewing, Martha club, red award, Hereford steer; Ewing, Martha club, red award, Hereford steer; Cara Corkle of O'Neill, Fancy Ropers, red award, Angus steer; Kathryn Hoffman of Ewing, Martha club, white award, Hereford steer; Kathryn Hoffman of Ewing, Martha club, white award, Hereford steer; Rose Mary Corkle of O'Neill, Fancy Ropers white award, Angus steer.

In addition, the county received a red award on a county group of five Hereford steers and a red award on a county mixed group of steers. Holt was awarded a blue ribbon for herdsmanship.

County Agent A. Neil Dawes said that the quality of the calves from here and those of the entire show was "much improved" over other years.

Calves $10 Cwt. Lower than '52

The annual Holt county stocker-feeder calf sale was held here Wednesday at the O'Neill Livestock Market and prices generally reflected the deflated livestock market condition. The top 21 head of 4-H calves averaged $29.20 per cwt. but the overall 4-H offering—75 head—averaged $21.83.

Managers of the sale, Lyle Dierks and Neil Dawes, said they were "generally pleased" with the results in view of economic conditions.

Donald Fullerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton of Amelia, showed the 4-H grand champion calf—a Hereford steer. The Fullerton entry was purchased by Kenneth Beatey of Fairview, in Clay county, for 50 cents per pound. The reserve 4-H champion, entered by Harold Whitcomb of Amelia, sold for 41 cents per pound to Wilbur Hansen of Roseland.

The 4-H calves were off about $10 per cwt. compared to last year. Eighty-five 4-H calves were shown and they were judged by K. C. Fouts of Lincoln, animal husbandryman at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture.

Eighty commercial calves were shown. Vernie Johnson of O'Neill had the champion pen of five and they were Angus steers Oswald Druke of O'Neill placed second with a pen of five Hereford steers. Championship single honors went to Dick Clark of O'Neill with a Hereford steer, and second place single honors went to Vernie Johnson with an Angus steer.

Top commercial price paid was $35.50 for a calf from S. R. Robertson's pen of five.

G. C. DeBacker, Chamber of Commerce president, presented the ribbons, assisted by James W. Rooney and H. J. Lohaus.

4 Perkins Tracts Sold at Auction

CHAMBERS—Four tracts of hayland, belonging to the estate of the late Louise Perkins, were sold Friday afternoon. Tract number one was purchased by Wayne Stevens for $9,900; tract number two went to J. F. Condit and C. E. McVay for $9,850; tract number three went to Louis Weiher for $9,900, and tract four went to Chraets Fauquier for $9,700.

This hayland, situated about 19 miles south of O'Neill, averaged $62 per acre. Bids on five other tracts were rejected and these tracts were not sold. Glen Adams of Chambers conducted the sale as administrator.

Chamber Meeting Monday Night

The October meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held at 7:30 p.m., Monday, October 12, at the M&M cafe. President G. C. DeBacker said a busy fall and winter schedule of activities for the Chamber should induce a good attendance at this session.

The Chamber recently adopted a provision for farmers and ranchers in the region to become members. Mr. DeBacker said this was decided upon because of several inquiries from farmers and ranchers who were anxious to join.

Weekly MARKET REPORT of the Atkinson Livestock Market

ATKINSON, NEBR.
Monday, October 5th Auction: Receipts totaled 1800 head — all calves. Quality much improved over recent weeks. Choice steer calves in best demand at 17.00 to 20.50 a hundred. Comparable heifers at 12.50 to 14.90 a hundred. Common calves hard to move at discounts of 3.00 to 4.00 a hundred, selling from 10.00 to 13.00 a hundred.

Tuesday, October 6th. Auction: Cattle Receipts 1550 head. Market action was pretty good in the face of sharp fat cattle declines and stagnation at central markets in stockers and feeders. Prices generally looked no more than a quarter lower from a week ago, with better yearling and two-year-old steers selling from 15.00 to 17.00 a hundred. Medium to good kinds at 13.00 to 15.00. Plain and dairy types at 10.00 and below. Yearling heifers of the better kinds brought from 12.50 to 14.00. Plain kinds on down from 11.50 to 10.00. The cow market showed a little improvement over a week ago and looked 25 to 50 cents higher. Canners at 7.00 to 7.50. Cutters from 7.75 to 9.00 and beef cows on up to 10.75 a hundred.

Next Calf Auction: Monday, October 12th—Regular Stocker-Feeder Auction— Tuesday, October 13.
