Bloodmobile's Visit Will Be Delayed

The American Legion auxiliary of Simonson post 93 met Wednesday, October 7, in the Legion lounge with the president, Evelyn Laursen, presiding.

It was decided to contact the gold star mothers, as some do not belong, and determine if they would like to join. The unit will pay their dues for the year.

The bloodmobile's visit, which was scheduled October 13, has been cancelled for this time, being unable to get ready in such a short time. If the unit does come, the auxiliary will serve a lunch to all donors.

The regionals are in favor of having a contest for the membership drive, with the losing side to give a potluck supper. The contest will end December 1.

The drapes have arrived for the lounge. It was decided to buy flags for the Junior auxiliary.

The Boy Scouts are having their north-central district "county fair" Sunday night, October 18, in the Legion auditorium. The auxiliary will serve the boys a lunch that evening before the program.

Monday, October 26, is county government day. The auxiliary will be serving the noonday lunch again this year, and the Nebraska Stock Growers banquet will be on December 3. Theazaar date is December 5. There will be a noonday dinner as before.

An auction will sell the needlework and baked goods left. The Junior auxiliary will have charge of the candy booth.

It was voted to send $25 to Genie McGlasson, a Veterans hospital, Lincoln, for the veterans to have a bingo party. It also was decided that after a veteran comes home from the hospital members should contact him to see if there is anything that he might need.

Mass was said for the late Mrs. Ellen Phalin, a gold star mother. The door prize was won by Rosemary Borg. The little red schoolhouse fund amounted to $1.82.

The lunch committee for November will be Mrs. Al Fritton, Mrs. Marie McDonald, Mrs. William McIntosh, Florence Schultz, Rose Minton and Claesre Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kurtz and children visited Sunday, October 21, with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kurtz at Bassett.

Mrs. Jones' Mother Dies in Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones were called to Polk on Saturday by the serious illness of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Nellie Peterson. She was taken to the Stromsburg hospital where she died Sunday at the age of 91.

Mr. Jones returned home Saturday evening but went back for the funeral which was held on Tuesday at the First Baptist church in Polk.

Mrs. Peterson was known to many in O'Neill as she had spent several winters here with her daughter and son-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Robertson attended the funeral services.

Honors Husband

Mrs. Harold Colfack entertained Sunday, October 12, in honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wondercheck and family and Mr. and Mrs. Nels Colfack of Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Colfack and family of O'Neill.

Wind Test Word Carried to Europe

The air force-sponsored wind test staged here during August and September is gaining international recognition. The test was officially designated as the Great Plains Turbulence Field Project and was sponsored by the Air Force-Cambridge (Mass.) research center in cooperation with 14 major universities and military agencies. This week The Frontier received a message from Dr. Heinz Lettau, world-ranking meteorologist who was field director of the six weeks O'Neill study which brought together here many of the top weather - wise minds in the U.S. Writing from Stockholm, Doctor Lettau said: "The fame of O'Neill's recent wind test is spreading. "I have had the honor to lecture about the O'Neill study in Toronto, Canada, at the assembly of the International Meteorological society, in Berlin, Germany, and now in Stockholm. "Details prove much to the excitement of my foreign colleagues and experts," Doctor Lettau added. Meanwhile, on the various university and college campuses and in the laboratories of the various military agencies the vast amount of data recorded here is being evaluated and studied.

'Round Robin'

Letter to Patient

CHAMBERS—The Chambers Garden club met Wednesday, October 7, with Wanda Smith, Jean Shavlik being cohostess. Eulalia Sexton presided. Pearl Neilson was asked to serve as secretary pro-tem.

Fourteen members replied to roll call, some by giving a description of a fall centerpiece. The treasurer reported a balance of approximately seven dollars.

Anna Albers presented a bill of $1 for cactus plants ordered as a result of a motion at the September meeting.

Saturday, November 7, at 10:30 a.m., was settled as the time for the plant and bake sale to be held in Shavlik's store. Four posters are to be made for announcing this sale. Anna Albers is chairman of the selling committee.

Following the business session, all adjourned to the garage where a number of attractive arrangements were made. Tillie Walter giving suggestions and advice. The hostess display consisted of fall garden vegetables, leaves and figures of birds in flight, the colors being affectively blended. Door prizes were awarded to Donna Hubbard and Pearl Neilson.

A "round robin" letter was written to Wanda Lenz at St. Anthony's hospital. A lunch was served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be November 4, with Eulalia Sexton, Nellie Medcalf being cohostess. Roll call should be answered by written suggestions for the 1954 meetings.

Gene Stanton of Sioux Falls, S.D., came Saturday, October 11, for a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stanton.
