Annual Tea—

The women's club will hold its annual tea on Saturday, October 24, in the Methodist church basement, starting at 2:30 o'clock. Miss Elja McCullough, dean of women at Dana college, Blair, will present a travelogue concerning her recent trip to Mexico and Southwestern states. Teachers will be honored guests.

190 Served in Stuart Banquet

STUART—The second annual homecoming was held Friday, October 16.

The program started with a parade on Main street at 2:30 p.m., led by the school band.

The floats represented the various classes and organizations of the public school. The senior class float was judged first; sophomore class, second, and a "bicycle built for two" from the lower grades received third place.

The P-TA served coffee and cookies in the home economics room to the visitors at the school-house.

A banquet prepared by the Women's Community club was served to 190 guests at the auditorium at 6 o'clock. Norris Coats was master of ceremonies. Dana Bigelow called the roll by classes and acknowledged letters from graduates unable to attend.

Mrs. Leonard Roberts, nee Ida Kraft, class of 1901, was honored as the oldest lady graduate present and Fred Zink, class of 1903, the oldest man.

The entertainment was furnished by the Pep club and consisted of a tap dance by Carolyn Cobb and Jane Henderson and vocal music.

Following the banquet, the crowd went to the Athletic park for the Stuart-Ainsworth football game and to see the homecoming king and queen crowned at intermission.

Chosen by the votes of the student body, Miss Marge Weichman and Don Welwel were crowned by Miss Shirley Shald and Robert Tielke, who were last year's royalty. Attendants to the queen were the Misses Mary Ann Allyn and Wilma Kaup and the king's attendants were Dennis Brewster and Dick Shald.

After the game a free dance was enjoyed at the auditorium.

Lynch Scores TD in Final 15 Seconds

Crippled Cards Still Needing a Win

The visiting Lynch high Eagles stiched victory from the wireless St. Mary's Cardinals in the last 15 seconds of their six-man grid exhibition played Friday afternoon in Carney park.

Halfback McDonald skirted end from the SMA 5 and hit pay dirt with the winning touchdown, giving Lynch a 24-21 victory.

Lynch stayed in front until the final period when there was a dizzy parade of touchdowns for both teams in a rock 'em, sock 'em finale.

Lynch scored a TD shortly after the opening kickoff with McDonald rambling across from 40 yards out. Early in the second period the visitors methodically worked the ball down and countered again.

Coach Bob Berigan's kids muffed a scoring opportunity midway in the second period. They reached the enemy 8 and the ball squirted away from an SMA back in a complicated double-lateral scoring effort.

Just before the halftime gun barked, SMA Back Dick Graham started through the line from his own 25, lateraled wide to Halfback George Tomlinson, who ran 45 yards to score. Jim Schmitz caught a pass for the PAT and the half ended, 12-7, with Lynch in front.

but both teams exploited in the frantic fourth.

The third period was scoreless. With five minutes remaining in the game, Graham faked a lateral to Tomlinson but kept it and ran 50 yards to put SMA in front. Schmitz caught a pass and SMA owned a 14-12 edge.

The Cards kicked to the Eagles. A long pass to McDonald- three plays later they were across. Score: Lynch 18, St. Mary's 14.

Lynch kicked to the Berigan crew and on of the first scrimmage, Terry Wanser heaved to Mike London who reversed his field about four times and crossed the Lynch goal standing.

The play covered 65 yards. Tomlinson ran the extra point. Score: St. Mary's 21, Lynch 18.

SMA kicked to Lynch and the Cards were holding until a roughing penalty in midfield put the ball deep in SMA territory.

From there and on a fourth down, Mr. McDonald raked up the winning TD. Score: Lynch 24, St. Mary's 21.

Lynch kicked to St. Mary's. The Cards had time for one play and the game ended.

St. Mary's was penalized more than one hundred yards. Chief penalties were backfield in motion and offsidess.

The Cards, still gunning for a victory, will entertain Sacred Heart of Norfolk tonight (Thursday) in Carney park. The Sacred Heart Knights are undefeated and are one of the top ranking six-man crews in the state.

The Cardinals have been handicapped all season by injuries, and had difficulty mustering a squad for Friday's go with Lynch.

Stuart, Ainsworth Finish in Deadlock

STUART — The Stuart high Broncos tied the Ainsworth Bulldogs by a score of 12-12 on the Stuart gridiron Friday night, October 16. The Broncos were in high gear, aiming to please a large homecoming crowd. It was a morale victory for the Stuart crew, because Ainsworth, a much larger school, held a decided advantage in the history books.

The score read 6-6 at the half and the entire team played good clean football throughout the hard-fought game.

Don Welwel carried the ball over the line for both of Stuart's touchdowns.

This was Stuart's last home game. The Broncos will engage Ewing on Friday at Ewing.

Albion Cardinals Whip Atkinson, 32-0

ATKINSON — Atkinson high school's football team was defeated by Albion at Atkinson's home field Friday night, 32-0.

It was the fourth game of the season in which Atkinson has failed to score.

The Atkinson team's only two touchdowns were scored against Valentine two weeks ago when Valentine won, 18-12.

The score at half-time was 6-0, but the Atkinson defense broke early in the third quarter and Albion score four more touchdowns.

Halls Feted— Members of the Assembly of God church gathered Sunday at the C. E. Worth home for a basket dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hall, who moved Tuesday to Blue Earth, Minn.

Coyotes Share Loop Leadership

Meadow Grove Nipped in Thriller

CHAMBERS—Coach L. J. Ek-dahl's Chambers high Coyotes currently are enjoying a share of the top rung of the Sandhills Gateway conference ladder in six-man grid competition.

By virtue of two victories in the past two weeks, 26-13 over Brunswick and 20-19 over Meadow Grove, and an Elgin loss to Orchard, the Coyotes share the top spot in the loop with Orchard and Elgin.

In the Brunswick game, the Coyotes exhibited a powerful running attack and a rockribbed defense. A goal line stand in the third quarter brought high praise from the partisans. Brunswick had a first down on the 1-yard-line, ran four plays, and failed to score.

Chambers led at the half 19-0, and with this lead was content to run the ball the rest of the second half. Only three Chambers passes were thrown the entire afternoon.

On Friday the Coyotes met Meadow Grove, which recently had defeated Orchard. It was Meadow Grove that snapped Orchard's 13-game win streak.

In a seesaw battle, that was a thriller from start to finish, Chambers defeated Meadow Grove 20-19. Extra points provided the margin of victory. The Meadow Grove spread attack gave the Coyotes many anxious moments. The powerful running attack featured by Chambers.

The next game for the Coyotes is with Orchard at Chambers. The Coyote record is now four wins and one loss. The lone setback was handed by Elgin, 19-12.

Moving to Denver—

Philip and Jack Dempsey arrived in O'Neill Friday from Denver, Colo. The Jack Dempsey family will leave in a few days for Denver where they will make their home.

Watch Huskers Finally Win

O'Neill was well - represented Saturday in Memorial stadium at Lincoln as the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers finally won themselves a football game. They defeated Miami (Fla.) U., 20-16. Earlier Nebraska lost to Oregon, tied Illinois, and was setback by Kansas State and Pittsburgh.

Among those from here at Saturday's game were Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Ray, Mr. and Mrs. John Stuitbergen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McElvain and son, John Lee, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller, Joe Biglin, Cal Stewart.

Lorell and Victor Pickering and Rexford Carson of the Red-bird community went to Lincoln Friday night on the train to attend the Nebraska-Miami game.

Albert Carson met them at O'Neill Sunday morning.

Linelle and Roger Tompkins and Douglas Jackson, all from Inman, viewed the game from the knothole section of the stadium.

The McElvains had a special interest because their son, Billy, is a member of the Nebraska band, which participated in half-time ceremonies with 65 Nebraska high school bands.
