Ex-POW Thorin Tells of Unrest

The prisoners were given a limited amount of news and only what would seem to suit the communist purpose. They learned of Syngman Rhee's release of North Korean prisoners who refused repatriation and were told it delayed truce talks. Even though that was the case, Chief Thorin said, prisoners who thought deeply about the situation feel no ill will toward Rhee. "It is easily understandable to me why he did it."

In his opinion, the fight in Korea was definitely necessary. "We have not done our full share until we combat communism as long as we live. If the war in Korea had some effect on stopping communism, and if the mistakes made, both politically and militarily, are corrected, then this affair will have been useful."

Chief Thorin holds the distinguished flying cross for helicopter rescue work on his first tour of duty in Korea from August, 1950, to February, 1951. He visited here in the spring of 1951 before leaving for his second tour of duty in Korea.

A veteran of 14 years service with the navy, he was graduated from Neligh high school with the class of 1936.

His mother, the late Mrs. Clara Thorin, died in February, 1952, without knowing her son had been downed by the enemy. His father died several years ago.

Chief Thorin is well-known in the Chambers, Neligh and O'Neill localities.

THANK YOU

This week the BIGLIN BROTHERS firm formally passes into new, well-qualified and experienced hands, and thus marks the end of continuous and uninterrupted family operation and ownership. The BIGLIN firm was established in 1885 by the late Mr. O. F. Biglin when the community of O'Neill was in its infancy. When he died two of his sons, Mr. William J. and Mr. Frank J., together guided and expanded the firm which came to be known as BIGLIN BROTHERS. "Bill" died in February, 1950, and Frank died in July, 1953.

BECAUSE of the tradition in these 68 years and because of a sense of loyalty and gratitude to this good community (a feeling which is shared by every member of the Biglin family), we find it difficult to make this announcement. Yet, in turning over the firm to the new owners, Mr. R. G. Clinkscales and Mr. George Hammond, we are sure you'll find the BIGLIN successors very high type gentlemen who already are a real credit to their profession and who will be assets to the community in their business partnership.

WE FEEL it is understandable why we have elected to terminate the family operation of the firm and that you will understand. You never will know, however, how grateful the Biglin family has been to this community and how we cherish the honor that has been bestowed upon our firm by hundreds of families. We are pleased that Mr. Clinkscales and Mr. Hammond have asked that the firm, now in new hands, embark upon the future with the BIGLIN name.

—MRS. WILLIAM J. BIGLIN
—MRS. FRANK BIGLIN

ANNOUNCEMENT

WE ARE pleased to announce the formation of a partnership that will endeavor to fulfill the BIGLIN BROTHERS responsibilities in this community. We are mindful of the very fine tradition and we will strive ever to be worthy of our place in community life. Insofar as is humanly possible, we will pursue the same policies of the BIGLINS—including the same staff, funeral directing and furniture sales.

MR. CLINKSCALES is not new to the community, having been in the employ of the late Biglin Brothers during the early periods of their respective illnesses. Mr. Hammond is a lifelong resident and an employee of Biglin Brothers for the past 3½ years.

OUR OWNERSHIP became effective Sunday, November 1. The business office and records always will be available to persons wishing to make settlements of accounts with the Biglin family.
