Church Notices

(Other CHURCH NEWS on Page 11.)

METHODIST (Emmett) Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor. The Lord's acre festival was a great occasion for our church. The fellowship was wonderful, the operation grand, the day (weather, that is) was better than we thought it might be. The work of Col. Dean Fleming was most acceptable.

It was a tired group of people who gathered for worship Sunday morning. But the attendance was very good. The pastor is preaching a sermon series on "The Habits of Christians." Sunday he spoke on the importance of attending worship services. This coming Sunday he will deal with the importance of prayer in the Christian's life. For the small children the nursery church school will be conducted by Mrs. Serok and Leah. Adults and children will meet following the worship service. Come to Emmet's Methodist church at 9:45 a.m., and spend the morning.

Bible study, we're studying the New Testament now, is a weekly affair. Call your pastor for time and place and assignment.
