White and gold chrysanthemums and pompons decorated the altar of St. Patrick's Catholic church, Omaha, Saturday morning, November 21, for the wedding of Miss Darlene Kallhoff and Robert Schomer. Reverend Sullivan officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kallhoff are the parents of the bride; the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Schomer of Osmond.

The bridal gown of white chantilly lace and nylon tulle over taffeta was fashioned with a strapless bodice topped with a fitted jacket. The waltz length bouffant skirt of nylon tulle was adorned with satin rosettes.

A tiara of seed pearl held the brides fingertip illusion veil. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and a crystal rosary.

Ex-Chambers Student May Enter Trial

Convicted murderer Hugh Griffith of Sidney told the state pardon board he didn't kill his wife and could prove it, and the board recessed for "about two days" to give him opportunity for further legal counsel.

Griffith asked—and was given permission to contact a Lincoln attorney, Mrs. Norma Vermaas, to see if she would step into the case.

Mrs. Vermaas is a former resident of the Chambers community, having attended school there. Only recently she was admitted to the bar.

Warden Herbert Hann of the state penitentiary said as of now, Griffith is slated to die in the electric chair January 15 for the shotgun slaying of his wife.

The 41-year-old oil field worker said he did not kill his wife, Anna, in June, 1952, and that witnesses and evidence which would have helped him prove this were not introduced at his trial in Cheyenne county district court.

Griffith told the board he could produce "lots of evidence" to prove his innocence.

A three-member state penitentiary mental health board directed to give Griffith a sanity hearing, talked with him last week for about an hour and a half.

The board's findings were contained in a report which was not introduced at the hearing. The board made no recommendations but said he showed symptoms of a persecution complex and appeared to be sane.
